

MICROBE OF LOVE VERY INFECTIOUS

Capacity House Applauds Work of Players in Musical Comedy.

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT

One of the Best Local-Talent Shows Ever Staged Was Colorfully Costumed and Full of Catchy Songs.

"The Microbe of Love," a colorful musical comedy, presented under the auspices of the Acorn Club, captivated a capacity audience at the Lincoln Way Theatre, Tuesday evening. From the opening chorus to the grand finale, the audience entered in the spirit of the production which was well-coached and played, in spite of the fact that less than ten days were taken for the rehearsals.

The story of the play is woven around the club of lonely spinsters who in their efforts to secure husbands for themselves, engage Madam Hyman Cupid as a last resort in their frantic attempts to secure them husbands. She tells them of a wonderful bug called the "Microbe of Love." The bite of this bug is sure cure for bachelorhood and accordingly the spinsters decide to hold a garden party at which time they will try the effects of the bug's bite on the bachelor club of town.

In the meantime, however, the bachelors hold a meeting and listen with great interest to the speech of Mr. Henpeck who is cut short in the midst of his oratory by the appearance of his wife. Madam Cupid enters their meeting and shows them the "Microbe of Love" and puts them all to sleep. Upon waking up, the bachelors find themselves feeling different toward the ladies of the spinsters club and at the garden party, each secures his life mate.

Mary Ramer, as president of the Spinster's Club, handled that organization with a fire and determination that caused the spinsters to engage Madam Cupid without allowing a dissenting vote. The costuming of the spinsters was perfect in every detail and the members of the club caused constant laughter by their witty sayings and actions.

Grace Ramer took the part of Madam Hyman Cupid in a delightful

(Continued on Third)

BABY CONGRESSMAN HERE

Congress' Youngest Member A Battlefield Visitor.

Congressman Lamar Jeffers, from Alabama, was a battlefield visitor here today. Mr. Jeffers is known as the "baby member of Congress," as he is the youngest member in the entire body. A deep scar, the result of contact with a machine gun bullet, is quite evident on his face. This wound and others sustained in France in the World War kept him in the hospital for over a year after the war was over.

Accompanying Mr. Jeffers was W. B. Bowling, La Fayette, Alabama; D. E. Leatherman, W. M. Storm, and Irving M. Landaner, all of Frederick, Maryland.

They were registered at the Hotel Gettysburg.

DEATH OF AGED MAN

Harrison Brough, Franklin Township, Died of Complications.

Harrison Brough died at his home in Franklin township, two miles from Cashtown, at 10:45 Tuesday evening from a complication of diseases. He had attained the age of 82 years, 1 month and 3 days. In May of this year, Mr. Brough, suffered a dislocated hip which left him almost helpless since that time.

His wife is his only survivor. Funeral services, Saturday afternoon, meeting at the house at 2 o'clock with services at the Reformed Church of Cashtown conducted by Rev. Walter Pugh. Interment in Flohr's Church cemetery.

FARM WEATHER REPORT

For eastern Pennsylvania: Thursday cloudy and unsettled. Moderate temperature. Moderate west becoming south winds.

TIRES at unheard of prices. 30 x 3 1/2 Firestone, $11.65. Other sizes accordingly. Gettysburg Rubber Co., 24 North Stratton street.—advertisement 1

WORDS CAUSE OF THREE STITCHES

Raymond Adams Lodged in Jail For Throwing Meat Platter.

After an altercation in the kitchen of the Eagle Hotel, Tuesday evening between 5:30 and 6 o'clock, Raymond Adams, colored, South Washington street, hit Harry Lyles, also colored, High street, over the head with a meat platter causing a cut which required three stitches to close. The incident grew out of an argument earlier in the afternoon when Lyles is reported as having called Adams an unsavory name. Both are waiters at the Eagle Hotel.

Both, it is alleged, had been drinking during the afternoon and Adams told Lyles to stay away from the dining room in the condition he was in. Lyles appeared at meal time and the assault resulted.

On the oath of Lyles, Corporal William Lewis, local State police, arrested Adams a short time afterward and lodged him in the Adams County jail. A hearing on the case was held this morning before Justice of the Peace, J. L. Hill, when Adams furnished $300 bail for his appearance at the next term of court to answer to the charge of assault and battery.

HOSPITAL BUSY

Twenty Five Patients Admitted Since Sunday. One Serious.

Twenty five patients are on the lists of the Hospital today with none of them in a serious condition except Walter Alwine, Berlin Junction, who was admitted several days ago for an operation for an appendix which had burst several days previous to his admission. Among the other patients admitted within the past twenty four hours are Bernard Rosensteel, Gettysburg; Beulah Lawrence, Hanover; Lucille M. Butt, New Oxford; Mary M. Dellett, Gettysburg; Hazel Dietrick, Bendersville, and Paul W. Schu-bauer, Harrisburg.

PLANT FOREIGN TREES

Trees Used In This County Imported From France.

The State Forestry Department in conjunction with the State Highway Department has finished planting trees along the Lincoln Highway in York and Adams counties and soon expects to complete planting in Franklin county. The trees are a foreign, imported variety and have been used along the highways of France and other Continental countries. The trees are expected to produce some shade in five years.

GUEST OF HEARST

Included in the congressional delegation which left Washington Sunday afternoon for Canada to investigate the operation of the sales tax in that country, was Congressman Edward S. Brooks, of this city and district. About seventy senators and representatives are members of the party.

The delegation goes to Canada as guests of William Randolph Hearst and the Hearst newspapers. Mr. Hearst and his papers bear all the expense.

GUEST OF LOCAL CHAPTER

Dan G. Swannell, national president of the Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity, of Champaign, Illinois, was the guest Tuesday of the Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter of this fraternity at college. He made a tour of the battlefield during the day and was the guest of the local chapter at a dinner in the Hoffman hotel Tuesday evening.

PREFERS SERIOUS CHARGE

The local State police arrested Edward Kohl, of Buchanan Valley, Tuesday evening, on a serious charge preferred by Isaac Sentz, also of Buchanan Valley. He was lodged in the local jail but was released under $300 bail at a preliminary hearing this morning. Bail was furnished by his father, Jacob Kohl.

BENDER'S Furniture Store has installed a hemstitching machine and is prepared to do hemstitching at a moderate price.—advertisement 1

FURS wanted: muskrats, good run, $1.25 average for this week. Skunks, $3.00, $2.00, $1.00 and 75c. Bring them in or phone Harry Weiner.—advertisement 1

LAWSUITS MAY FOLLOW MEETING

Colleges Placed on "Black List" May Sue For Damages.

COLLEGE "WHITE LIST"

Dr. Finegan Believes Educators Erred in Making Known Names of Colleges Having Less Endowments.

As an aftermath to the recent convention of the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools in the Middle States and Maryland, held last week in Swarthmore, when the educators after a stormy session made known a list of 59 colleges which measured up to the educators' standards and placed eleven colleges in this section on a "Black List," it is learned from good authority that some of the colleges thus segregated and which for many years have met with all the educational requirements of their States with the possible exception of large endowments, may institute court proceedings to overcome the possible effect of the association's placing them on a lower scale than those included in the "White List."

Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, questions the wisdom of the association in attempting to prescribe standards for educational institutions in the several States in a field in which each State has legislative enactments on the subject. "To place certain colleges in a secondary list," Dr. Finegan declares, "is not only inadvisable, but distinctly unjust."

"One of the institutions upon this list, it was learned, has an enrollment of about 450 students, has a curriculum which conforms to the standard prescribed, but has not the productive endowment which the association believes all institutions of higher learning should possess. Nevertheless, this institution is able to meet its obligation with promptness and to maintain a faculty conforming to required standards."

"I believe better results would be obtained," Dr. Finegan continued, "if the advanced standards prescribed were set for new institutions which shall hereafter be chartered and were not made retroactive to apply to existing institutions which are doing satisfactory work."

"I question the wisdom of this association in attempting to prescribe standards for several States in a field in which the State has legislative enactments. A recommendation from the association that the Legislatures of the respective States should modify their laws to meet such standards as the association deems wise would,"

(Continued on Third)

ESCAPED WATERY GRAVE

Machine of Robert McKinney Plunges In the Susquehanna at Harrisburg.

Robert McKinney, son of J. S. McKinney, West Middle street, narrowly escaped serious injury and death recently when the automobile he was driving, went over the curb at Front Street, Harrisburg, and plunged into the river bed. After leaving the curb the machine continued to run along the river bank for a number of feet, barely missing running into a tree, then skidded down the steep incline to the river, ran over a small row boat tied to the bank and came to rest ten or twelve feet on the other side of the boat with water almost submerging.

Mr. McKinney, who is living in Oberlin at the present time, is a frequent visitor to Gettysburg.

DEARDORFF FUNERAL

The funeral of Jacob Deardorff, resident of Cashtown who died suddenly, last Saturday morning, was held from his late home at 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Rev. D. T. Koser, officiating. The pallbearers at the home and the grave were A. L. Carbaugh, Bright Cook, Charles Kuhn, John Hartman, Charles Carbaugh, and Howard Diehl. Interment was made at Flohr's Church cemetery.

BACK to pre-war prices. 50c, business men's lunch at Eagle Hotel. First class service and pleasant surroundings.—advertisement 1

WOOLNAP blankets, full bed size special at $2.98. G. W. Weaver & Son.—advertisement 1

ARMY OF HUNTERS AWAIT DAYLIGHT

Gunners by Hundreds Now Housed in Mountain Lodges For Deer Season.

By nightfall the scores of deer hunter's lodges in the South Mountains will be inhabited with gunners from Adams and Franklin counties and others who join the various camps from nearby cities. Everything is in readiness for the arrival of the big game seekers, because since Sunday when the advance guard went to their camps, preparations have been underway.

Those sections of the mountains where deer are known to frequent most will be alive with posses of armed men at the crack of dawn Thursday and for two weeks the antlered animals will be driven by a small army of riflemen, each seeking the honor of killing the first buck of the season. An accurate shot at a buck with horns four inches above the skull means the end of the season for the successful hunter, for one is the bag limit for the year. Accurate shots at does and young bucks by over-anxious hunters usually means a heavy fine.

All day hunters, passed through Gettysburg. Many were togged in hunting clothes and others wore army uniforms long since discarded. All wore the red-topped cap, which is used to make it possible to distinguish the gunner from a distance in the woods. Stores offering hunters' and camp supplies were kept busy supplying the demands.

While those who have been in the mountains during the past few weeks believe bucks are not as numerous as in the last two years, gunners are not dismayed and indications are that a record number will be out.

MEN OF CHURCH ORGANIZE CLASS

Project Launched at Presbyterian Gathering. Carlisle Pastor Spoke.

Organization of the Men's Bible Class of the Presbyterian Church was effected at a chicken dinner served in the church Tuesday evening. Thirty seven members were enrolled and officers elected.

Following the dinner served by the women of the church, Dr. Glen M. Shafer, pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, of Carlisle, was introduced. He spoke of the problems facing the men of the country today, laying special emphasis on the necessity for disarmament. He pointed out some of the difficulties that must be overcome by the conference now meeting in Washington. There must be truthfulness, a hate of war and prayer among the people of the world if wars are to be forever ended.

Brief remarks were made by Robert Major, who acted as toastmaster for the program, J. Allen Dickson, Col. J. B. Scott, Hubert Lynn, Theodore McAllister and Rev. W. C. Robinson, pastor of the local church. Mr. Robinson presented the plan for organizing the Men's Bible Class, following which these officers were elected:

President, Major C. Nixon; vice president, E. W. Thomas; secretary, E. L. Dick; treasurer, Ross Myers; teacher, J. Allen Dickson; associate teacher, Charles Wolf. The class will hold its first meeting next Sunday morning.

DISCOVERS INDIAN RELICS

Dr. Spauls Will Lecture on His Specialty Here.

Dr. George Custer Spauls, of Philadelphia, formerly of the Bureau of Indian Affairs at Washington, who will deliver a lecture at Gettysburg College next week, is one of the persons who recently unearthed a valuable collection of Indian relics in this state at a spot that has not been revealed.

Dr. Spauls, while refusing to divulge the nature of his find, declares he is conducting an investigation of the territory, and expects to make sensational discoveries along the line of Indian relics.

TO HOLD SILVER TEA

The Gettysburg Women's League of Gettysburg College will hold a silver tea in the Sunday School room of the College Lutheran church at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, December 6. Every member with a guest is expected to be present. An attractive program has been arranged.

BETTER ROADS TO BE DISCUSSED

First National Convention of State Highway Engineers to Meet.

GETTYSBURG MEN THERE

Howard C. Mittinger Will Probably Attend Meeting in Omaha, Nebraska, Next Week. Discuss Road Building.

When the national convention of State Highway engineers meets in Omaha, Nebraska, next week in a four-day session, Gettysburg will in all probability be represented at the convention by Howard C. Mittinger, manager of the Hoffman Hotel and secretary-treasurer of the Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway Association. The State Highway Department at Harrisburg will be represented by Major W. D. Uhler. The convention which opens on December 5 and continues until the ninth, is the first of its kind and has been called for the purpose of standardizing road building methods in all the states of the country and to discuss better methods of road construction.

While laymen have not been invited to the convention which will, it is said, be purely a technical gathering, the convention will be attended by members of the various highway associations throughout the country. The National Lincoln Highway Association will be represented by A. F. Bement. These men who are not engineers will attend the meeting for the purpose of securing the latest ideas on road construction as well as forming a permanent organization of this convention. In latter years, it is the purpose of the Association to have the engineers meet with the laymen of the various road organizations.

Mr. Mittinger and the other representatives from Pennsylvania, it is said will represent the business interests along the Lincoln Highway especially that part leading from Chambersburg to Pittsburgh. While that particular piece of road is in fine condition at the present time according to reports, in a few years it is the hope of the Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway Association to have a concrete highway replace the asphalt. The representative of the Pennsylvania Association will strive to determine from the discussion of the engineers at this convention whether or not it is possible to build this stretch of road without diverting traffic around either the National or the William Penn Highway by building one side of the road at a time and completing it as they go which would leave the other side open for traffic to continue through Gettysburg.

This particular method of road construction has been attempted in New Jersey and has proven very satisfactory, according to State officials. Traffic through Gettysburg this fall has been normal, officials state, but

(Continued on Third)

OWNED CAR ONLY MINUTE

Abbotstown Man Had Car Stolen In City.

Walter Craumer, proprietor of the Abbotstown garage, went to Philadelphia Tuesday morning to return with a Ford sedan which he had arranged to purchase at the Ford agency in that city. After he had driven the car out of the warehouse to the street he stepped into the office to pay for it. When he returned to the street, in about ten minutes, the car was gone. It had been stolen. No trace of the car or thieves had been found when Mr. Craumer reached York by train later in the day. The license number of the car was X5712. Mr. Craumer offered a reward of $100 for the return of the car.

MARRIED EARLY IN MORNING

Rev. W. R. Glen, former pastor of the United Brethren Church here, now of Frederick, Maryland, recently performed the earliest marriage of his ministry. He was awakened at 12:30 in the morning by a couple from Hagerstown who desired to be made man and wife.

BACK to pre-war prices. 50c, business men's lunch at Eagle Hotel. First class service and pleasant surroundings.—advertisement 1

CHILDREN'S pocket books, 25c to 65c, just half price. Gift Shop.—advertisement 1

TO SEIZE MONEY TO PAY INVESTORS

Litigation in Philadelphia Court Involves Company That Operated Here.

All of the property and money of Franklin Spiese, the Philadelphia promoter of the National Guarantee Corporation, has been seized and will probably be used to pay off the investors in this section, as well as the hundreds of others who bought stock in the National Guarantee Credit Corporation through Worth & Company. The injunction preventing Spiese from disposing of his money or property was granted Tuesday by Judge Rogers, following action taken by the receivers of the National Guarantee Credit Corporation, who hope ultimately to convert the cash and property to the benefit of stockholders of the company.

Spiese, it was testified at the hearing at which the injunction was granted, has approximately $213,000 which he diverted from both the Credit Corporation and Worth & Company, Incorporated. Through the latter firm Spiese sold $1,600,000 worth of Credit Corporation, and under a contract received $753,000 as a twenty eight per cent commission, plus the running expenses of Worth & Company, Incorporated.

While this huge sum ran through Worth and Company, Incorporated, Spiese evidently was as much of a wizard in making dollars disappear as he was in coaxing them from about 5,000 investors in different parts of the country, a Hagerstown paper says.

In the account of Worth & Company, Incorporated, in one of the Philadelphia banks is just $8, while since the spotlight was thrown on Spiese's promotion methods $232 was turned over to Charles G. Gartling as trustee.

Gartling was secretary and counsel for each of the five companies promoted by Spiese. He also is one of five men under bail with Spiese on charges of conspiracy in connection with the sale of N. G. C. stock.

INSTALL NEW BISHOP

Rev. Micheal Curley Succeeds Late Cardinal Gibbons.

(By Associated Press)

Baltimore, Nov. 30.—Most Rev. Micheal Curley, former bishop of St. Augustine, Florida, was installed arch-bishop of Baltimore at the cathedral this morning, succeeding the late James Cardinal Gibbons in that capacity. The conferring of the pallium, the crowning act in the elevation of a bishop to the arch-episcopacy, will take place in January next.

Bishop Owen B. Corrigan diocesan administrator since the death of Cardinal Gibbons pontificated at the mass. The structure was crowded to overflowing. After the mass Bishop Corrigan delivered an address of welcome and loyalty to the new arch-bishop on behalf of the clergy and Robert Biggs, president of the St. Vincent DePaul conference, spoke on the part of the laity. Arch-Bishop Curley responded expressing appreciation and gratitude for the warmth of his welcome.

Monsignor Curley is tenth arch-bishop of Baltimore. It was the first installation ceremony held in the historical edifice since Cardinal Gibbons became head of arch diocese more than 44 years ago.

FEAR IRISH HOSTILITIES

(By Associated Press)

London, Nov. 30.—Government circles today expressed the belief that the Irish conference would break down almost immediately as a result of difficulties which have arisen and that the resumption of armed hostilities could not be postponed.

The alternative settlement plan, submitted by the government Sinn Fein representatives last evening, included the necessity for a different undertaking by the Sinn Fein to take the oath of allegiance to the crown.

The Sinn Fein has many objections to the government's new plan but even if it agrees to discuss this plan it will not now give its assent to the oath of allegiance proviso, it is stated.

BUY your Christmas gifts and week-end food specialties at the Reformed Church Bazaar held this Friday and Saturday at Rex's Garage. Open from 10:00 a. m. through evening.—advertisement 1

FOR SALE: quartered oak bedroom suite, six pieces, $50.00. Apply 135 Carlisle street.—advertisement X

MAY END DISPUTE ABOUT SHANTUNG

Japanese And Chinese Delegations to Discuss Problem Outside.

IS DELICATE QUESTION

Little Activity in Arms Conference. Naval Experts of Three Powers in Brief Session.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 30.—Arrangements have been made, it was said officially today in arms conference circles for direct negotiations between Japanese and Chinese delegations over Shantung. The prospects were considered in American quarters as good that the Japanese and Chinese representatives would be able to settle the Shantung dispute outside of the conference.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Details of the American plan for limitation of naval armaments were discussed today at a brief meeting of the sub-committee of naval experts of Great Britain the United States and Japan. The session was adjourned shortly after 11 o'clock and then, it was said, there would be no other meetings of the sub-committee and that it had not been determined whether discussions would be resumed tomorrow.

STOCK REPORT

Rails Only Shares to Show Any Stability.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Nov. 30.—Rails were the only shares to show any stability on the stock market during the morning. Mexican and domestic oils sustained further losses and numerous specialties fell 1 to 3 points. Prices in general reacted before noon as fresh pressure was directed against oils and equipments. All Liberty bonds excepting 3 1/2s made new high records, the second 4s rising 96 cents per hundred dollars. Call money opened at 5 per cent.

SUBPOENAS FOR DIRECTORS

Transit Men Must Explain Financial Transaction.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Nov. 30.—August Belmont and other directors of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company invited by the State Transit Commission to appear and explain financial transaction of 1917 and 1918 refused today to testify by invitation.

Seven subpoenas returnable tomorrow morning then were issued for August Belmont, Edward J. Berwind, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Daniel G. Reed, S. D. Sullivan, Thomas Dewitt Cuyler and Morgan J. O'Brien.

MYSTERY IN WOMAN'S DEATH

(By Associated Press)

Baltimore, Nov. 30.—Miss Louisa Dagenhardt, 50 years old, was found dead in a shed in the rear of her home, 321 South Spring street, today. She had been dead for several days and had been strangled with a towel. She had also been kicked and beaten and there was evidence of criminal assault.

STARTS CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)

President Harding began today what was understood to be the first of a series of conferences with congressional leaders particularly from the Senate, paving the way for the executive address to Congress, next Tuesday, in which a legislative program for the coming session will be outlined.

DISCUSS MORATORIUM

(By Associated Press)

London, Nov. 30.—Reports that the British cabinet was considering the proposed moratorium for Germany were confirmed in official circles today, the point being discussed is under what conditions could a moratorium be declared.

HUNTERS. Shoddy blankets for deer camp. Cot or bunk size. Warm and built for camp wear. G. W. Weaver & Son.—advertisement 1

BUCHANAN Valley Hall box party and dances. For deer hunters, the supper is cheap. Wednesday, November 30th.—advertisement 1

STATE ATTACKS ACTOR'S WITNESS

Rebuttal By Prosecution Continues. Undermines Some of Defense's Evidence.

TRIES TO IMPEACH STAR

Chief Counsel For Arbuckle Says He is Willing to Submit Case to Jury Without Argument.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—Prosecution rebuttal evidence occupied the entire session yesterday in the trial of Roscoe C. Arbuckle on a manslaughter charge in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe. The prosecution announced that it would continue this character of evidence today.

Milton T. U'Ren, assistant district attorney, said that the commission of three medical experts who had been selected to examine the bladder of Miss Rappe would not report before Thursday. This commission will determine, if possible, if the organ was in a healthy condition before the fatal rupture, which the prosecution alleges Arbuckle caused by the application of external force.

Rebuttal Almost Finished

The major portion of the prosecution's rebuttal was introduced through a number of different witnesses to contradict evidence that Miss Rappe had been in poor health for several years prior to her death.

An attempt by the prosecution to secure a perjury warrant for Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, a defense witness, was temporarily abandoned when the presiding judge of the Superior Court refused to act and judges in the Criminal Court departments withheld action "until both sides could be heard."

Mrs. Mary Paulin, hostess at a Los Angeles resort where Mrs. Neighbors had testified she met and aided Miss Rappe during her illness, testified that Miss Rappe had never registered at the resort and that she could not recall ever having seen her there. Following this testimony the State charged the defense witness with perjury.

McNab Is Through

Gavin McNab, chief defense counsel, announced his willingness to submit the case to the jury without argument. The prosecution did not make known its decision in this regard.

Rebuttal witnesses were placed on the stand by the prosecution when court resumed. The defense attorneys had announced that they had no other witnesses.

Charles Burrows, a San Francisco publisher of a fraternal magazine, testified that the reputation of R. C. Harper, a defense witness, was "bad." Harper had testified he was a friend of Miss Rappe and had known her in Illinois and California, and that whenever she had taken intoxicating liquors she complained of pains in her stomach.

Harry Boyle, assistant manager of the Hotel St. Francisco, where Miss Rappe is alleged to have been fatally injured while attending a party in Arbuckle's rooms, testified that two of the rooms involved has not been occupied between the time they were vacated by Arbuckle and the time they were taken in charge by the police. One of the rooms is that in which Miss Rappe is said to have been injured.

Frank Latulipe, diagram expert for the police department, testified that he had measured the doors in the room involved.

WIRELESS CHAIN FAILS

Plan To Link Parts Of British Empire Unsuccessful.

(By Associated Press).

London, Nov. 30.—The "Imperial Wireless Chain," which it was predicted when the scheme was first broached, would bind together the different parts of the empire, has not yet fulfilled the sanguine expectations of British newspaper men. At the annual meeting of the Empire Press Union in London, the government was much criticised for alleged apathy and procrastination in the matter.

Robert Donald, well-known journalist, said if things remained as they were there would be no Imperial Wireless Chain. There might be two or more disjointed systems but no one co-ordinated scheme under one control, linking together all parts of the empire, and adding to the means of distributing news.

The Imperial Conference, he added, came to no decision on wireless. Mr. Churchill, as Secretary of State for the Colonies and Chairman of the Imperial Communications Committee, took up the subject and hoped to put through a scheme on a big scale but now had abandoned the child of his ambition and wireless had drifted back to the post office.

CARRIERS MUST EXPLAIN RATES

Asked to Show Figures to Justify Present Level of Charges.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The railroads will be given from December 14 to 21 to justify in hearings the present level of transportation charges, the Interstate Commerce Commission announced yesterday in making public a questionnaire to the carriers. It is intended to guide all persons interested in appearing in the general investigation that commission is to make.

Must Produce Books

The roads are asked whether present rates are reasonable in the aggregate in the country as a whole, or reasonable in the territorial rate groups and if not to what extent they need modification. It asks definite financial showing as to what returns the carriers are earning and what prospects they have for the future; what has been done to reduce operating expenses, by what changes up or down have already been made in industrial commodity rates and what has been expended on maintenance.

The commission also invites argument as to what rate of rating railroads should be entitled to earn upon their property holdings after March 1, 1922, when the transportation act's six per cent standard of railroad earnings expires.

Cincinnati, Nov. 30.—Instructions were sent out here yesterday from the national headquarters of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Station and Express Employees, by E. H. Fitzgerald, grand president, to the 230 general chairmen of the brotherhood to meet a proposed new demand of the railroads for further reduction of wages, with a counter demand for restoration of pay to the former basis in effect before the 12 per cent cut was ordered by the labor board. It is expected that the management of the individual railroads will confer with the general chairmen of the brotherhoods, and if they cannot reach an agreement the question will be referred back to the labor board.

WANTS ONLY TO CLEAR BOY'S NAME

Mrs. Stillman Will Drop Fight Against Mrs. Leeds in Divorce Case.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Abandonment of the counter attack upon the conduct of James A. Stillman by Mrs. Anne U. Stillman in the divorce proceedings instituted by the New York banker, was forecast last night after adjournment of a one-day hearing before Referee Daniel J. Gleason.

Mrs. Stillman, it was said, probably would not call any more witnesses in support of charges that her husband was guilty of misconduct with Florence H. Leeds, former Broadway show girl. Future testimony, it was explained, would be devoted to defending Mrs. Stillman and the paternity of baby Guy Stillman, whom Mr. Stillman seeks to have adjudged illegitimate.

Counsel for Mr. Stillman announced several times that the banker would not contest evidence touching upon his own behavior.

Were at St. Regis

Testimony at yesterday's hearing was understood to have set forth that Mr. and Mrs. Stillman and two of their children stayed at a suite in the St. Regis Hotel, New York, for two weeks during February, 1918, nine months before the birth of Guy Stillman. It was said to have been brought out that Fred Beauvais, the Indian guide employed by the Stillmans and named co-respondent in the banker's complaint, was a guest at the hotel during that time.

John F. Brennan, counsel for Mrs. Stillman, and John E. Mack, guardian ad litem for Guy Stillman, will leave for Montreal tonight, it was said, to prepare for taking testimony there regarding the relations of Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais at and near the Stillman summer camp at Three Rivers, Quebec.

KEEPS YOUNG

Aged Health Expert Advises Reading Of Newspapers.

(By Associated Press).

New York, Nov. 30.—Reading newspapers will help one to keep young. This is the opinion of Dr. Stephen Smith, founder of the New York Health Department, who recently celebrated his 98th birthday.

"Read all the news in the papers," he advised. "Read even the murders. I get six papers every day and read them all through."

Up to two years ago, Dr. Smith walked eight miles every day. He still takes his daily constitutional, but has cut down the distance.

LLOYD GEORGE TO MAKE TERMS

Prime Minister Calls Sinn Fein Meeting After Craig's Statement.

MAY AVERT COLLAPSE

Ulster Leader Declares He Will Not Be Coerced. Say There is Still Chance of Coalition.

London, Nov. 30.—An anxious day in the negotiations designed for the pacification of Ireland ended last night with the hope that a complete collapse of the parleys might still be averted.

Sir James Craig, Ulster Premier, as was expected, told the Northern Parliament in Belfast that Ulster had absolutely refused to accept an All-Ireland Parliament, demanded as a solution by the Sinn Fein delegation. He announced Ulster's willingness to discuss other proposals for an Irish settlement if they were submitted by next Tuesday.

Prime Minister Lloyd George immediately summoned Sinn Fein delegates to consult with him and his Ministers, immediately upon learning Sir James' position, and submitted to them new proposals which, if they meet with the approval of the Sinn Fein, will be presented to the Ulster officials before next Tuesday. The nature of the alternative proposals will not be divulged pending their consideration by the Sinn Feiners.

Situation Now Double-Deadlock

The situation still is very critical owing to the double deadlock—Ulster refusing to enter an All-Ireland Parliament and the Sinn Fein steadily refusing to yield on the question of allegiance to the Crown. The negotiations, however, have not been broken off and many be continued on a new basis.

Admission of the possibility that Ulster and the South of Ireland may some day coalesce "of their own free wills," is ascribed to Sir James in an interview yesterday by the Daily Mirror.

"I do not say Ulster will never accept an all-Ireland council, though the Sinn Fein says it will never accept any other scheme," Sir James is quoted as saying. "What we say is, let the Sinn Fein first prove its ability to govern itself along constitutional lines. Let it win Ulster's confidence by practical proof of its fairness and impartiality toward the Southern Unionists. Then, in the course of time, the two Irish Governments might coalesce of their own free wills."

"I can not say whether this would be good or bad, of that I am not convinced. It might be very bad, for while Ulster remains a part of the United Kingdom, England can always land troops in Ireland by way of Ulster if Great Britain's safety is jeopardized by any cause affecting Irish harbors or coasts."

Craig Explains Ulster's Stand

"If Ulster conceded all the Sinn Fein's demands," the interview continued, "the whole world would throw its hats into the air in a frenzy of joy and relief. There would be world-wide thanksgiving services in the churches and wonderful scenes of happiness. But England would then banish Ireland from its mind, and turn its thoughts to its own problems, and if the Sinn Fein began to oppress Ulster under the all-Ireland council, England would then answer Ulster's complaints by saying, 'You accepted the council, you must manage your own affairs now.' Indeed, England would have no right to interfere."

Sir James was quoted as outlining imaginary cases of oppression, such as the enforcement of Catholic teaching through educational legislation. "Remember, religion is behind this historical quarrel, although little is said in that regard," he was quoted, "and that is the sort of thing that would be likely to happen."

STARNERS

Starners—Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Scott Slusser.

Mrs. Albert Paxton and two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie and Esther, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Maria Wolford.

William Sheaffer, an employee of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad has moved his family from Harrisburg to Idaville.

R. U. Starners, is building a new poultry house.

William Wolford and his mother, Maria Wolford, spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Christian Slaybaugh and family, at Aspers.

Guest—"Johnny, I want you to do something for me. When your sister and I are in the drawing-room after dinner, I want you to creep in and turn the gas low." Johnny—"You're too late. Sis told me to turn it out."—Boston Transcript.

"Miss Thirtyodd says her face is her fortune." "Well, she'll have to charge off a lot for depreciation."—Boston Transcript.

DR. LORENZ WORN OUT BY HARD WORK

Famous Austrian Surgeon Virtually Collapsed While Conducting Clinic.

New York, Nov. 30.—Worn from the severe strain of his work on behalf of New York's halt and lame, Dr. Adolf Lorenz virtually collapsed Monday when he had finished his clinic at the Hospital for Joint Diseases.

He was led from an examining room, where he had been working on a patient, to another nearby, supported by two hospital attendants, in an almost fainting condition. Fellow physicians treated him, and after half an hour's rest he got up, a trifle refreshed, and proceeded to Franca's Tavern, where directors of the Broad Street Hospital tendered him a luncheon.

It had been a busy morning for the bloodless healer. Arriving at the hospital at 9 o'clock he performed three operations and then examined more than forty patients in his clinic. He called a halt on clinical work an hour before the usual time.

The three operations included one on Shirley Sachs, 22 months old, of Cranford, New Jersey, for congenital hip disease; an effort to correct the double club feet of a 50-week-old baby and an operation on Margaret Williams, 11, Little Falls, New York, which he hoped would restore her left arm to the same length as her right.

The collapse of Dr. Lorenz yesterday is not a surprise to those who have watched him in his week's work. He has had little rest. When he was not engaged in public clinics or operations, he was kept busy by private consultations or healing efforts.

SEIZED ROBBER AND BEAT HIM UP

Harrisburg Mob Treats Man Caught Stealing Roughly. Goes to Hospital.

Harrisburg, Nov. 30.—Gun fire and the active use of clubs, wrenches and fists predominated Monday night between 8 and 9 o'clock in Cameron street near Hancock, when Charles Earnest, of near Pittsburgh, with George and Morris Bland, of this city, attempted to rob the Ideal Auto Parts Company, police say, and were surprised in their endeavor.

C. E. Kraft, owner of the garage, said yesterday morning that he was talking with some friends when they heard a noise in the rear of the building and grasping any weapon at hand, attempted to surround the robbers. With the first sight of them, there was a burst of fire from the robbers, and then the chase began.

In a short time the proprietor had been joined by a huge mob, and the pursuit led through the coalyards of the Harrisburg Paper Box Company at Cameron and Walnut and continued in and out of various small yards and alleys. James Neely, of 322 Strawberry street, was stopped with a bullet which creased his abdomen and several others shots were fired.

Finally the mob leaped on Earnest, and several beat him before the police intervened. He is in the Harrisburg Hospital suffering from a possible fracture of the skull. A .32 caliber revolver with five exploded cartridges was found in his possession. The other two negroes, Bland brothers, were arrested later and are confined to jail awaiting a hearing. Chief of Police Joseph Thompson said yesterday morning that they will be charged with assault with attempt to kill.

BURY COMRADE C. O. MYERS

G. A. R. Conducts Service At The Grave And Furnishes Palbearers.

Corporal Skelly Post, No. 9, G. A. R., furnished the palbearers and conducted short services at the grave at the burial of their comrade, C. O. Myers, this morning, who died suddenly early Saturday morning at his home, West Middle street. Rev. Harry Daniels conducted the services at the house and was assisted at the Methodist Episcopal Church in York Springs by Rev. A. J. Martin. The Grand Army Post conducted the services at the grave.

Members of the local post, who acted as palbearers, were: Theodore McAllister, John K. McIlhenny, W. H. Lott, P. S. Eisenberg, William Benner and M. F. Williams. Interment took place in the Sunnyside cemetery, York Springs.

FIRE AT URSINUS

Collegeville, Pa., Nov. 30.—Thirty girl students of Ursinus college were forced to flee in their night clothes early Tuesday when fire in the basement of a dormitory filled their rooms with smoke. Men students from nearby dormitories went to the rescue of the co-eds, none of whom were injured. The blaze was confined to the basement and soon extinguished.

PERSONAL NOTES AND BRIEF ITEMS

News Notes From Around Town and Throughout the County.

MANY DAILY VISITORS

Mention of Guests From Nearby Towns. Short Paragraphs of General Interest.

Edgar S. Faber has been confined to his house since Monday on account of illness.

Mrs. P. W. Erdman and daughter, Phyllis, have returned to their home in Tamaqua, after taking part in the "Microbe of Love."

Harry Hart, Hanover, was a business visitor to Gettysburg, Tuesday. George Gouker, Two Taverns, is quarantined at his home with diphtheria.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Sammel and son, Edward, have returned to their home in Newcastle after spending some time with Mrs. Sammel's parents, Hon. and Mrs. E. P. Miller, of York street.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shriver, East Middle street, announce the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman King, York Springs, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Sara Geiselman, East Middle street.

Miss Dorothy Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Weaver, West Middle street, has returned to Beckley Business College, Harrisburg. Accompanying here was Miss Louise Beachly, who was visiting her.

STATE GRANGERS TO MEET IN YORK

Program Announced For Sessions to be Held There December 13.

The tentative program for the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, to be held in York beginning Tuesday, December 13, has been announced by John A. McSparran, of Furness, Lancaster county, who is master of the organization. Included in the program is an address of welcome by Mayor Hugentugler, to be delivered at the opening of the convention at 10:30 a. m. The address of Mr. McSparran will follow immediately after the mayor's.

All the sessions with the exception of the conferring of degrees will be held in the High School auditorium, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December 13, 14 and 15. The degree work will be exemplified Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Orpheum Theatre by C. C. Rankin, master of the degree team.

The program as announced will be of interest to York county grangers who will attend the convention in force. Twelve hundred delegates from granges in all sections of the state and hundreds of other unofficial representatives will be there. The convention promises to be one of the largest ever held in York.

WEST POINT

West Point—Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and sons Richard and Kenneth, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baugher and family, of Aspers Station.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Martin and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Wenk and family of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Taylor and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Showers and family. Miss Mae Thomas of near Gettysburg, spent the weekend with her friend Miss Marjorie Brough, of this place.

Miss Mable Smith spent the weekend with Harrisburg friends. Miss Catherine Cluck of this place spent a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cluck, of near Bendersville.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice were: Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Guise and three children, Elson, Marie and Roy, of Stone Jug; Mrs. Jacob Yohe and son Herbert and daughters, Gertrude and Maude and grandson Ray Yohe, of near Dillsburg and Mr. and Mrs. Miley Yohe and daughter, Helen of this place.

Mrs. Margaret Black and daughter, Flora spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Sheaffer and family.

Miss Blanche Wenk spent an afternoon recently with Mrs. Aaron Taylor of near this place.

ARE DRUGGISTS NOW

New York, Nov. 30.—One-third of the drug stores of Brooklyn are now owned by former saloon keepers who have gone into the business since prohibition. Charles H. Heimerzheim, secretary of the King's County Pharmaceutical society declared Monday. Federal agents estimate that in the last year 600 drugstores have been opened in New York.

Holiday Slippers

In large assortment for every member of the family.

Both Phones ECKERT'S SHOE and STOCKING STORE Call Us

$1.58 SPECIAL ALARM CLOCK SALE $1.58

We have received a big shipment of Alarm Clocks made by one of the country's best alarm clock manufacturers which we are going to sell at the low price of $1.58 each.

These clocks are well made. You can have your choice of a blue, pink or white enameled case, as they come in these three different kinds.

A wonderful bargain.

Adams County Hardware Company

For Sale

Delco-Light Plant in use about two years. In good running condition.

S. G. Bigham

Biglerville, Pa.

Stock Up With Cigars, Cigarettes and Tobacco for Your Hunting Trip

You will need plenty of smokes to make your trip a complete success, so don't fail to stock up, and if you want to get the most for the least money, buy them at your United Agency.

SHUMAN'S

34 Baltimore Street

FORMER HUN SUB MEN RUM-RUNNERS

Bootlegging From Germany Into Sweden Is Like Public Scandal.

Stockholm, Nov. 30.—Rum-running into Sweden from Germany has developed into something like a public scandal, say Swedish newspapers. The broken nature of the coast line and the thousands of small islands dotting the sea approaches are all in favor of smuggling enterprise.

The crafts engaged in this trade are generally small, fast-sailing schooners, captained as a rule by ex-officers of the imperial German navy. Many of the skippers bear the names well known in the records of submarine activity. Their daring and experience makes it very difficult for Swedish coastguards to stop them.

From Reval, Rostock, Stettin, Lubbeck and other German ports these vessels put to sea, their cargo always consigned, according to the ship's papers, to some Finnish port. Once among the rocky archipelago of eastern Sweden, the cargo is landed piecemeal after nightfall on the rocks, from which it is later removed by accomplices ashore who have a widely ramified organization for the island distribution of the goods.

This illicit traffic is said by Swedish paper to be enormous. The papers are full of stirring stories about smugglers and their doings. They remain outside the territorial waters, cruising about until their friends seize their chance to rush out in fast motor boats often in a heavy gale, tranship the liquor and disappear into the dangerous labyrinth of the archipelago.

Lately the police has started a scheme to beat the rum-runners at their own game. The other day a police boat, camouflaged as a smuggling craft, boarded a German schooner and loaded up to the gunwale from the schooners hold, unconscious of the fact that the schooner was just outside the territorial limit. When the

GERMANY WOULD HAVE MORATORIUM

Condition of Country Basis For Considering Extension of Time on Debts.

London, Nov. 30.—Rumors of a proposed moratorium for Germany are revived by the Daily Mail, which reports that Sir John Bradbury, British delegate on the reparations commission, has drafted a memorandum on the subject for the consideration of the Cabinet. The newspaper says that, as a result, the Cabinet will urge a moratorium on Germany's debts to the Allies of two or three years on condition that she cease manufacturing currency.

Dr. Walter Rathenau, former German Minister of Reconstruction, and Dr. Walter Simons, former Foreign Minister, arrived in London yesterday and it is surmised that their visit is connected with the repatriation question. This belief strengthened by the fact that Baron Edgar D'Abernon, British Ambassador to Germany, is also here.

Paris, Nov. 30.—The French government, it was made plain yesterday, is strongly opposed to the proposed moratorium for Germany's debts to the Allies, the movement for which is understood here to be gaining great strength in British official circles. The French view is that Germany is potentially quite capable of meeting her reparation payments and will do so unless given encouragement from Allied sources to resist payment. While agreeing that Germany's finances are in a critical condition, French officials indicate their belief that a readjustment can be effected without resorting to such a radical move as a moratorium.

BETTER ROADS TO BE DISCUSSED

(Continued from First)

next year and the following years the increase will be about 30 to 40 per cent. Then if the Lincoln Highway is again closed between Chambersburg and Pittsburgh during the following year when necessary repairs will be made, somewhat the same condition will prevail in Gettysburg hotels and business places which prevailed for the past three years.

Following this convention, the Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway officers and members will meet either in Gettysburg or Chambersburg early in January 1922 at which time ways and means will be discussed for the use and distribution of the States share of two and one half millions of the Federal appropriation for road building. The best plan for repairing the Lincoln Highway then between Chambersburg and Pittsburgh will also be discussed and plans submitted to the State Highway department for their approval.

WHITE CHURCH

White Church—There will be Sunday school and preaching at this place on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Collins, of Two Taverns, is visiting her son, J. Warfield Collins, of Michigan, also other friends and relatives in the West.

Mrs. Laura Weigand has returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Collins, after being at Atlantic City for some time.

Quite a good crowd attended the oyster supper which was held at the home of Milton Benner on Thanksgiving evening.

L. U. Collins and C. E. Wolf and son, Ralph, spent Saturday evening in Gettysburg.

Miss Pauline Leister, of White Run, spent Saturday and Sunday in York.

Wilbur Leister, of York, spent Thanksgiving with his sisters, of White Run, Mrs. Earnest Strickhouser and Pauline Leister.

Curtis Sanders, of this place, is on the sick list and is absent from school.

Mrs. Alex Worley and Mrs. Rebecca Wintrose spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, of near Yoost store.

KISS INSTRUCTIONS

University Co-eds Told How to Resist Successfully.

Chicago, Nov. 30—What to do when a man attempts to steal a kiss is explained to Northwestern University coeds in the December number of the Purple Parrot, issued at Evanston under student editorship.

"When a man kisses you, struggle fiercely at first, and then appear gradually to be overcome by his superior strength," read the instructions.

"Close your eyes and hold yourself rigid, relaxing a bit if the kiss endures.

"Let a variety of expressions flood your face—anger, sorrow, despair, joy. It is important that all these be registered.

"Struggle occasionally as if to free yourself.

"If you will observe these instructions carefully, he will most probably kiss you again."

ROBBED RICH WOMAN

Mrs. Proctor Hands Over Fortune in Jewelry.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 30—A countrywide search is being instituted for the four bandits, two white and two colored, who Monday night invaded the home of Colonel W. Cooper Proctor, president of the Proctor & Gamble Company, at Glendale, and stole jewelry valued at from $75,000 to $100,000.

Colonel Proctor was away on a hunting trip and the bandits forced Mrs. Proctor and her sister, Miss Johnson, and the aged cook in the home, to stand with their faces to the wall, when, with revolvers drawn, they entered the house. Mrs. Proctor was compelled at the point of pistols to go upstairs with two of the robbers and open the safe, which was in a closet. From this the bandits took the jewelry.

ARBuckle CASE DRAGS

San Francisco, Nov. 30—Rebuttal testimony was the order of the day at the reopening of the Roscoe Arbuckle manslaughter trial yesterday morning. The district attorney's office, after a conference of all those engaged in the prosecution, announced that about forty witnesses would be heard.

Arbuckle's own story of the events at a party in his suite in the Hotel St. Francis, at which the prosecution contends he administered fatal injuries to Miss Virginia Rappe, was given to the jury Monday. In substance he said he found her ill and did everything in his power to allay her suffering. Cross-examination failed to make him change any particular of his description.

PRESS CAN BIND PACIFIC PEOPLES

Secretary of Pacific Union Points Out Work to be Done.

San Francisco, Nov. 30—Education alone will bind together the peoples of the Pacific, it was decided at a series of conferences held recently under the auspices of the Pan Pacific Union in Honolulu, the cross roads of the Pacific, according to Alexander Hume Ford, secretary-director of the Union. Leading scientists, educators and editors of Pacific lands attended the meetings.

Summing up the work of the conference, Mr. Ford, while here recently, said it was decided that the press was the surest medium of educating the peoples of the Pacific as to each other's true aims and ambitions and in bringing them into better understanding.

"Through the Pan Pacific Union, which is now supported by all the governments about the greatest of oceans, the scientists are arranging to study the scientific problems of the Pacific and to seek their proper solutions," Mr. Ford said. "Already they have found the remedy for leprosy, which is now being wiped out. They are taking up the study of fish food supply of the Pacific with the assurance that with scientific propagation and protection of fish in Pacific waters the Pacific Ocean will supply sufficient fish food, preserved, to feed the world. The problem of saturation, or the knowledge of just how many people a country may naturally support, is to be taken up by the Pan Pacific Union and a conference will be called to discuss the subject. Two thirds of the world's population live adjacent to Pacific lands and the immigration problem has become an acute one. Japan allows but 1,500 Chinese to migrate to her shores annually and California does not wish this many Japanese, while Hawaii cries for thousands more Oriental laborers for her sugar cane fields.

"It has been pointed out by some Pacific scientists that the United States cannot support a population of more than a quarter of a billion living according to the standard of the Anglo Saxon, while she might easily support a billion population living according to the standard of the Japanese and twice as many if the Chinese standard of living is adopted. Science steps in and says that perhaps means may be found to make the soil twice as productive as it is at present, which would, of course, solve the Japanese immigration problem for another generation and banish famine and starvation from China for some time to come. They point out that Java, with a population of six millions a century ago, suffered from famine and overpopulation. The Dutch stepped in with scientific methods of agriculture, with the result that today Java, with a population of thirty six millions, is threatened with a serious shortage of labor.

"These are some of the problems discussed at the Pan Pacific Union conference. The heads of all Pacific countries are officers of the union and it is even hoped that next summer a conference may be held in Honolulu of the presidents and premiers of Pacific lands.

"A Pan Pacific school of journalism, located at the ocean's cross roads, is one of the recommendations of the Press Congress and this may be established to train men of all languages of the ocean in modern newspaper methods."

MT. TABOR

Mt. Tabor—John H. Macbeth, of Gettysburg, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Howard.

John Walhay, of Harrisburg, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walhay.

Mrs. Annie Hale was a visitor at the home of Elmer Griffith and family.

Misses Eleanor and Catharine Griffith spent a week with their aunt, Mrs. Annie Hale.

Mrs. Jennie Day and Mrs. Ira Heller and children were visitors at the home of Carl Black and family.

Paul Cline, of Gettysburg, spent Thanksgiving Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Cline.

Wharton Carey and Miss Theresa Cline left for McKnightstown, where they will spend some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carey.

BANDITS GET $15,000

Shipsheana, Ind., Nov. 30—The Farmers State Bank here was robbed of between $12,000 and $15,000 in currency and Liberty Bonds early yesterday. The safe had been opened with the aid of an acetylene torch. Officials of the bank said the loss was covered by insurance.

"I'll trouble you for the time, mister," said the footpad. "It's just striking one," replied the man accosted, punching him between the eyes. "Don't hit me with your second hand," said the footpad, skipping off.

A BIG JOB FOR THE BLACKSMITH

"Jim, this trouble hit me the day after we left the floe. Not scintilla, at first, but in the head. I couldn't think right. I was just numb in the brain. An' when it cleared off, it was too late. The ice had closed. We couldn't go back. I read up in my medical book, Jim, later, when the scintilla took me.

"Had to take to my bunk. Couldn't stand. I had morphine, an' it relieved me. Took too much after a while. Had to have it. Got better in San Francisco for a bit. Then Carlsen prescribed it. Morphine was my boss, an' then Carlsen, he was boss of the morphine. Seemed like—seemed like—

His voice was weaker when he spoke again. They came closer to catch his whispers.

"Carlsen—mind wasn't my own. Peggy—I wasn't in my right mind, honey. Not when—Carlsen—he was angel when he gave me what I wanted—devil—when he wouldn't. Made me—do things. But he's dead. And I'm going. Never reach Unalaska. Peggy—forgive. Meant for best—but—not in right mind. Jim—it wasn't the gold. Not Peggy's fault—anyway."

"She'll get hers, Simms," said Lund. "Yours too."

The skipper's eyes closed and his frame settled under the clothes. The girl flung herself on the bed in uncontrollable weeping. Lund raised his eyebrows at Tamada, who shrugged his shoulders.

"Better get out o' here," whispered Lund. He and Rainey went out together. In a few minutes Tamada joined them, his face sphinxlike as ever.

"He is dead," he said. Rainey and Lund went on deck. The schooner thrashed toward the volcano, the bearingmark for Unalaska, hidden behind it. They paced up and down in silence.

"I guess he was 'Honest Simms,' after all," said Lund at last. "The girl blames me for the morphine, but Carlsen never meant him to live. She'll see that after a bit, maybe."

Rainey glanced at him curiously. He was getting fresh lights on Lund.

Then the girl appeared, pale, composed, coming straight up to Lund, who halted his stride at sight of her.

"Will you change the course, Mr. Lund?" she said. "Father spoke once more. After you left. He does not want to go on to Unalaska. He said it would mean a rush for the gold; perhaps you would have to stay there. He does not want you to lose the gold. He wants me to have my share. He made me promise. And he wants—she wants—she bit her lip fiercely in repression of her feelings—"to be buried at sea. That was his last request."

She turned and looked over the rail, struggling to wink back her tears. Rainey saw the giant's glance sweep over her, full of admiration.

his pale blue eyes glancing at the set of his calves and then taking on a glint that turned amidsips.

Lund looked like a bear surrounded by the dog-pack. He stood upright while the six hunters tore and smashed at him. Lund's arms swung like clubs, his great hands plucked at their holds, while he roared volleys of deep-sea, defiant oaths, slinking or striking off a man now and then, who charged back snarlingly to the attack.

Brief though the fight had been when Rainey arrived, there was ample evidence of it. Clothes were torn and faces bloody, and already the men were panting as Lund dragged them here and there, flailing, striking, half-smothered, but always coming up from under, like a rock that emerges from the hursting of a heavy wave.

A hunter lurched out heavily and confidently to meet him as the others got Lund to his knees for a fateful moment, piling on top of him, bludgeoning blows with guttural cries of fancied victory.

Rainey's man struck, and the strength of his arm, backed by his hurling weight, broke down Rainey's guard and left the arm numb. The next instant they were at close quarters, swinging madly, rifle with the one desire to down the other, to maim, to kill. A blow crashed home on Rainey's cheek, sending him back dazed, striking madly, clenching to stop the piston-like smashes of the hunter clenching him, trying to trip him, hammering at the fierce face above him as they both went down and rolled into the scuppers, leaving at each other.

He felt the man's hands at his throat, gradually squeezing out sense and breath and strength, and threw up his knee with all his force. It struck the hunter fairly in the groin, and he heard the man groan with the sudden agony. But he himself was nearly out. The man seemed to fade away for a second, the choking fingers relaxed, and Rainey gulped for air. His eyes seemed strained from bulging from their sockets in that fierce grip, and there was a fog before them through which he could hear the roar of Lund, sounding like a siren blast that told he was still fighting, still confident.

Rainey saw his face, one red mask of blood and hair, with his agate eyes flaring up with the glory of the fight. He roared no longer, saving his breath. One of the men tackling his legs dropped senseless from the buffet he got on the side of his skull, and Lund's kick sent him scudding across the deck, limp, out of the fight that could not last much longer.

(Continued Tomorrow)

RULES ON CLOSED LANDS

Authority of the State Game Commission for closing lands to hunting cannot be exercised, except by the Commission on State game preserves or by officials in charge of State institutions for posting of State-owned land and farms against hunting, according to an announcement by Seth E. Gordon, secretary of the Commission. This notice came because of discovery that lands were being posted by farmers in Centre and other counties with warnings that trespassing was forbidden by authority of the State.

Game protectors sent in notices which were found to have been printed in Pittsburgh, and it turned out that the printing firm, which had printed notices for the State institution at Poik, kept the form standing and printed identical notices for individuals who had given orders for no trespassing signs. The type containing the State authority was removed.

LAWSUITS MAY FOLLOW MEETING

(Continued from First)

in my judgment, have been a better procedure. I think the association would have found a general spirit of cooperation on the part of all those who are interested in proper standards for institutions of higher learning in the several States concerned if the subject had been broached from this viewpoint."

Gettysburg College, Dickinson and Bucknell were among those who appeared on the "White List," while Hood College, Frederick, Wilson College, Chambersburg, and Mt. Saint Mary's, Emmitsburg, were on the "Black List."

RARE VASES BRING LITTLE

Pullman Furnishings, Under Hammer In Chicago, Sell for Song.

Chicago, Nov. 30—Rare vases and other antiques were sold for mere pittance yesterday at the auction of the $500,000 furnishings of the home of the late George M. Pullman, the most richly and magnificently furnished residence in the country and the showplace of the Middle West. The furnishings are being sold to close out the estate. This site of the home, the scene of the 1812 Fort Dearborn massacre, will be used for a factory.

Two revolving Sevres vases, valued at $2500 each, were auctioned for $175 apiece, while a royal Sevres vase, costing $400, went for $80. The highest bid for a statue by Le Moreaux, bought by Pullman in France for $1000, was $95.

Minnie Crimmings, for 40 years personal maid to Mrs. Pullman, has been barred from the part of the house where the auction is being held. The auctioneers said her grief was so apparent that it interfered with their work. Rugs valued as high as $15,000 each, and many rare paintings, are yet to be sold.

Most of the purchasers are dealers, few bids being made by society folk. Pullman—founded the Pullman Car Company.

WILLS NURSE $1,000

Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 30—Her kindness and sympathy of Martha E. Davis, a Mt. Carmel nurse, won for her an award of $1,000 by Clara M. Marks, of that place, whose will was admitted to probate in the office of John L. Carr, clerk of the Orphans Court for Northumberland county.

Emma Bender, Mt. Carmel, is given $100, while John P. Marks, is given the residue in trust for his life, which is to be divided between Emma J. Marks and William J. Marks, brother and sister of the deceased. Direction is made that William J. Marks serve as executor without bond.

TEN WOMEN ON JURY

Only Two Men Will Help To Decide Fate Of Burch.

Los Angeles, Nov. 30—A jury to try Arthur C. Burch, accused of the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, was completed yesterday. It was composed of 10 women and two men. The Court ordered the selection of an alternate juror, and that was taken up immediately.

MICROBE OF LOVE VERY INFECTIOUS

(Continued from First)

manner. She sang her numbers well and acted the part of the frenchy match-maker in a pleasing way.

J. D. Doub, a senior at College, as Jeremiah Henpeck, was one of the best comedians seen in local talent plays for some time. His acting the "hen-pecked" husband was the cause of much fun of the evening.

The other characters showed careful selection and each seemed especially cast for the particular part they took.

The costuming of the choruses was colorful and contrasted sharply with the dull costumes of the spinsters. The girls were capable singers and the ensembles took place with smoothness. In fact the whole production does much credit to the efforts of Miss Louise Allen, the director. The music was well chosen and fitted the theme of the show.

The cast of characters follows: Priscilla Prunes, President of the Spinsters Club, Mary Ramer; Wanta Man, Mazie Krout; Ima Frand, Marie Codori; Sophie Sweetgum, Anna McSherry; Arabella Antique, Lottie Raffensperger; Lovie Long, Helen Pfeffer; Lillie Lonesome, Dorothy Crouse; Smantha Loving, Katherine Bender; Maria Henpeck, Olive Kready; Madam Hyman Cupid, Grace Ramer; Piney Melting Heart, Katherine Hummelbaugh; Tillie Comes, Lilly Dougherty; Evva Ready, Kathryn Musser.

Billie Bachelor, President of the Bachelor's Club, Henry Scharf; U. B. Careful H. P. Belknap; Simon Shy, P. W. Erdman; Very Bold, Ross Sheely; Never Wed, George Scharf; Bobby Bashful, D. J. Doub; Willie Never, Harold Roth; Jeremiah Henpeck, John Doub; Tom Collins, Brady Armor.

Chorus girls: Anna Sefton, Kathryn Reaser, Maybelle Weaver, Ellen Tipton, Madeline Diehl, Ruth Stallsmith, Madeline Roth, Rosella Winslow, Ida Hartley, Madeline Troxell and Old Fashioned Wife, Mrs. P. W. Erdman.

Cupids: Phyllis Erdman, Vera Warfield and Martha Stallsmith.

MILLIONS IN WAGES

Washington, Nov. 30—Class one railroads, comprising those with monthly receipts exceeding $1,000,000, employed 1,164,872 persons in July, 1921, at wage cost of $214,339,385, according to a report published by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Of the workers 15,155 were executive officials, receiving average monthly pay of $523. There were approximately 373,000 persons on maintenance of way, 450,000 on maintenance of equipment and 289,383 in train and engine transportation service.

Average pay for 48 classes, from messengers to general managers, was found by the Commission, the lowest being $62 a month.

NOTICE

Mr. F. E. Nay having returned from his trip to New Mexico is now located with the Nay & Topper Auto Laundry and Repair Shop in rear 56 East Middle street.

We wish to announce that we are in shape to give prompt service on all makes of cars.

Estimates freely given, all work guaranteed.

We aim to Satisfy Prices right
F. E. Nay E. H. Topper

GETTYSBURG-HARRISBURG BUS LINE

	Leaves Gettysburg	Leaves Harrisburg
Week Days	7:15 A. M. 11:00 A. M. 5:00 P. M. 9:00 A. M.	6:45 A. M. 12:30 P. M. 7:30 P. M. 6:45 A. M.
Sundays	4:00 P. M.	6:00 P. M.

Leaves National Garage, Gettysburg, and Market Square, Harrisburg.

Express bus leaves National Garage, Gettysburg, at 9:00 A. M. and (Raffensberger's, 904 Market St., Harrisburg) at 2:00 P. M.

Pre-Christmas Sale

Wood Toys on Wheels
Special 10c
One coupon

Four piece Dining Room
Set—Special 39c
Two Coupons

ASK FOR COUPONS

Small Doll Cart, Special at 25c. One Coupon

FREE Three Baby Cabinet Photographs

A coupon will be given with every 25 cent purchase up to ten o'clock December 24, 1921.

The three persons returning the largest number of coupons by 10:30 o'clock, p. m. December 24th will each receive a Baby Cabinet Photograph FREE.

Mitchell's Toy and Novelty Shop

Center Square

Gettysburg, Pa.

A Gridiron Dreadnought

Two or three have fallen in the path of this fellow but he's not down yet. He's Van Buren of the Naval Hospital team at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. His victims are boys from the receiving station, but they may join the hospital corps before the game's over.

BEAVERS WANT OWN HOMES

Zoo Animals Not Satisfied With Artificial Houses.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Nov. 30—Beavers at the Bronx Zoo have no use for houses made for them by man. They want the home-made variety.

The keepers decided recently that the beaver house in one of the lakes at the park not only was inadequate but inartistic. So, the lake was drained, the house torn down and a new structure, pleasing to the human eye, erected.

The water was then let back into the lake and the beavers, who in the meantime had been confined to narrow quarters, swam out to look over their new domicile. It was evident that they unanimously condemned the affair, for without even taking a peek within, they started to demolish it. A home of their own notion soon appeared and everybody seemed happy, except the discomfited keepers and carpenters.

The beavers did not like the dam the keepers had erected either, so after they had plastered up their house with mud and made preparations for a hard winter, they changed the level of the water in the lake.

TO SELL DUCAL RESIDENCE

Sunderland House In London Is On Market.

London, Nov. 30—Sunderland House, one of the most luxurious of ducal houses and the property of Mme. Louis Jacques Balsan, formerly the Duchess of Marlborough and Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, is in the market. During the war, Sunderland House was commandeered by the Office of Work and all the famous art treasures were removed. Until quite recently it was the London home of the League of Nations.

This huge, square, French house in Cannon Street, which was built by the late W. K. Vanderbilt as a gift for his daughter Consuelo, contains a great marble hall and a double gilt staircase. The rooms all run into each other and the whole of one side of the house is taken up by the ballroom which had a wonderful painted ceiling and great crystal chandeliers with the ducal crown and Churchill arms much in evidence.

The Duchess of Marlborough obtained a divorce from the Duke in 1920. In July last, she was married to Lieutenant-Colonel Louis Jacques Balsan, a retired French army officer and a sportsman, who served during the war with the French army as liaison officer with the British air forces in France. Before her marriage to M. Balsan, she had purchased a fine estate at Eze, near Monte Carlo.

BANDITS ROBBED 25

Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 30—Bandits raided two local saloons and a barber shop, emptied the pockets of twenty five persons they found in the places and seriously wounded two men who were slow to obey their commands.

Six robbers, caps drawn over their eyes, forced twenty two patrons in the saloon of Tony Sigillo to stand against a wall while their pockets were picked of cash and jewelry. The loot there was estimated at $500.

Two hours later three men entered a saloon in Mercer street, shot Michael Angelo, proprietor, in the mouth, wounded Alfred Sonaag, a patron, in the arm, emptied the cash register and fled.

In an Emerson street barber shop five men took $30 and a watch from Joseph Gancio, a customer, then rifled the cash register.

Daily Fashion Hint

VERY TRIM AND SMART

The fascination of the straight-line dress increases when to it are added dress-plaids of self-material. Bordered fabrics also are suited to the development of this design in gray Canton crepe. In the absence of a border, the plaids may be edged with wide and narrow ribbon or braid. Buttons to correspond with the braid trim either side of the front, while a narrow self-belt holds in the fulness at the waist. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 36-inch material.

Pictorial Review Dress No. 9558, sizes, 16 to 20 years and 34 to 44 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

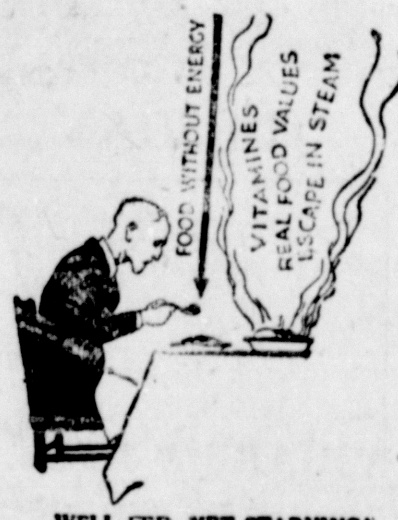

Take Yeast Vitamon Tablets to Supply Energy Food Lacks

Put On "Stay-There" Flesh, Strengthen The Nerves, Clear The Skin and Invigorate Your Body.

Thin, run-down folks who have been wondering why they remain so skinny and lacking in energy even though they seem to eat a lot, should try taking two of Mastin's yeast VITAMON Tablets with their meals and watch results. Mastin's VITAMON Tablets supply in highly concentrated form a proper dose of the health-giving, body-building vitamins. You surely need to get some of these precious vitamins into your system at once. Mastin's VITAMON Tablets mix with your food, help it to digest and supply just what your body needs to feed and nourish the shrunken tissues, the worn-out nerves, the thin blood and the starved brain. Flashes, lumps and skin eruptions seem to vanish like magic under this beautiful invigorating influence. Mastin's VITAMON will not cause gas or upset the stomach, but strengthens the digestive and intestinal tract and helps to overcome even chronic constipation. Be sure to remember the name—Mastin's VITAMON. Avoid substitutes and imitations. You can get Mastin's VITAMON Tablets at all good druggists.

Are Positively Guaranteed to Put On Firm Flesh, Clear the Skin and Increase Energy When Taken With Every Meal or Money Back

WELL-FED, YET STARVING! Add vitamins to the food. The very food you eat may be weakening you because it lacks vitamins. Eat what- ever you like, but be sure to take two of Mastin's VITAMON Tablets with every meal.

Are Positively Guaranteed to Put On Firm Flesh, Clear the Skin and Increase Energy When Taken With Every Meal or Money Back

BUTCHERING TOOLS AT NEW PRICES

Our prices this year are much less than last. We are getting back to pre-war prices.

Sausage stuffers and grinders and all enterprize goods are here at the new prices.

Also lard cans in 25-lb and 50-lb sizes.

Butcher knives and saws are also in this lot of specially priced goods.

Gettysburg Department Store

Useful Practical Appreciated

These words express what a gift should be. Such are those that we offer.

Wrinkle Proof Ties Angora Sport Vests
Silk and Angora Mufflers Smoking Jackets
Wool and Silk Sport Hose Embroidered Initial Handkerchiefs
Silk Shirts

Come in and inspect them and see the new prices.

IVAN G. NAUGLE, PROP.

PHONE 57 W.

The Quality Shop
7 BALTIMORE ST.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE

GETTING EVEN

COME on, old scout!" called Art Jennings to his lagging companion. "Here's the place."

Jim Dale hesitated. "I don't exactly like to go in when it says 'No Trespassing,'" he remarked.

"Oh, that sign!" laughed Art. "That's an old sign. It's been there for years and nobody pays any attention to it. You see, the people that own this land don't live here, and if we don't take those chestnuts they'll rot on the ground. Why, I've been coming out here for three years and getting chestnuts off that tree!"

"I suppose the nuts would just be wasted if we don't get them," said Jim.

"And wasted, if we do!" laughed Art, gaily, climbing the barb-wire fence. "See? They'll end in waste or waist. I'd rather have them in my waist. Come on, old top!"

Jim knew Art was a good fellow but very headstrong and quick. Consequently he was always in trouble—at least, almost always.

"You know, you've gotten me into more than one scrape," he said, following his impetuous friend.

In a short time both boys were on the other side of the fence on their way to the large chestnut tree, which stood in a thin fringe of trees skirting one side of an old pasture where the grass had grown up high, yellow and sweet in the autumn sunshine. There were ferns and mullen taller than the boys' heads, and the brown ghosts of many wild flowering things withered by the early frost. Outcropping rocks and hollows tripped the unwary feet of the trespassers.

"Geel!" remarked Jim. "I'd hate to be chased over this ground."

"Calm your fears, boy," said Art. "Nobody's going to chase us."

The tree was all Art had said it was. Chestnuts were scarce and getting scarcer every year, but this tree was loaded. Brown stickling burrs covered the ground, most of them open and showing the glistening treasures within. The boys put down their sacks and fell to work gathering the harvest as fast as they could. Some- how both felt uneasy. Art remarked: "I've been coming here for three years and there better not anybody stop me!"

"Suppose they did," said Jim. "Don't worry," replied Art. "He'd maybe find he was the one that was being chased."

The words were hardly out of his mouth when they were both startled by a roar coming from a spot nearby. "Geel! What was that?" Jim exclaimed.

They listened and sniffed the air. "I know," said Art. "It's a cow."

better move along as soon as we get our sacks full."

They worked furiously and soon agreed they had enough. Jim picked up his sack and struck off over the field while Art was still knotting his "Hurry up, Art!" he called, and hurried himself, anxious to get off the grounds.

He was half way over the field when a shout halted him. He looked around and saw a tall powerful youth of around fifteen stalking in his direction. Jim was no coward, but he was a slight fellow and younger than the newcomer by several years; he sides there was something menacing about the way the latter came striding toward him. Jim's legs just naturally began to bear him swiftly towards the fence.

"Hey!" shouted the stranger. "You young thief! I'll teach you to steal people's chestnuts!"

Jim paused a moment to shout: "I'll pay you for them!"

"You bet you will!" came the reply, and the stranger began to give chase.

Jim was by now near the fence and he did not delay about getting under. "Here're your nuts!" he called tossing his sack into the pasture. I didn't know anybody wanted them."

"Well, somebody does," replied the older boy with a scowl, picking up the sack. "This place has been sold and it's ours now. I'll let you fill one of your pockets from the sack and would give you more only we can't afford it. We had to take a mortgage to buy this place and we aren't any too well off, if you want to know the truth."

"I have a pocket full, thanks," said Jim. "I don't mind giving the plunder to the rightful owner."

Now that the other had come closer

The HANDY BOY AT HOME BY CHARLES A. KING. STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, PLYMOUTH, N.H.

Make of cigar box or other thin wood. Cut out with coping saw. Trace with carbon paper or prick with needle point.

BULLY-BOY may be made of cigar box wood, though three ply wood is to be preferred as it is not so likely to split while it is being worked. The only tools necessary are the coping saw, a file and a small twist drill. 1/8" will do. Best results will be obtained if pasteboard patterns are made; to make these lay a piece of pasteboard upon a table, place a piece of carbon paper upon it, lay the sketch of Bully-Boy upon the carbon paper and make a tracing, following the lines of the sketch carefully; the carbon paper may be omitted and the lines pricked through, or made with a tracing wheel if preferred. Cut these pieces of pasteboard carefully to the lines, lay them upon the wood and mark around them, marking the holes accurately. First mark the bodies as they are the largest pieces, following the dotted lines under the legs and marking the location of the holes; then the head, the two hind legs, the two front legs, the two ears and the tail. In using the coping saw to cut around the lines, follow them closely, being sure that the line is left upon the very edge of each piece. The holes should be bored in the ears and the tail before they are sawed, as they might split if the hole were bored after sawing them to exact size. These holes should be 1/4" to receive a split pin or a wooden or cane pin which must be fitted closely. Bore the holes of the same size through the larger pieces, smooth the edges of each piece with a file or sandpaper, and remove the burr from all corners and around the holes. Paint all pieces white on both sides and lay them away, resting upon the corners to prevent marring the fresh paint until they have become thoroughly dried. Paint the black spots on the head, body, legs, ears and tail, being sure that they are painted for the right and left sides, and set them away to dry, though it is possible to do all the painting at one time. Assemble the pieces, smooth the ends of the wooden pins if they are used instead of the metal split key, and paint their ends white where they come through the outside of the body and ears. With a fine pointed brush and smoothly flowing paint make the eye, lines showing the mouth, the wrinkles under the jaw, around the mouth and upon the legs. Paint similar lines upon the other side.

If the pins fit closely, but not so tight that the pieces cannot be moved, the dog may be made to take many life-like and amusing positions. If it is desired to make a larger dog, draw squares upon a piece of pasteboard which will be large enough to make the dog of the desired size, copy the lines and locate the holes carefully, maintaining their relation square by square, cut the pasteboard out to conform to the lines and proceed as described above.

FOOTBALL ADVICE (FROM BIG BROTHER)

RIGHT through the goal-posts over it goes. Straight from the tips of his stout little toes; That is the way when you're making a kick. Go at it hard but be steady and quick.

That is the way to make good at the game, Football, or what you may play, it's the same; Hold up your end, give the best that you've got. They may think you a slow one, just prove you are not.

And likewise with lessons, don't alter your pace But study and strive to keep up in first place. Work hard when you work, play hard when you play, And you'll get to the top and you'll get there to stay.

Jim saw that he was a clean-cut young fellow. But where was Art? Jim scanned the field anxiously. The stranger, carrying the bag, began to walk away towards the strip of woods and Jim was afraid he might run into Art, and Art in his usual headstrong way might start something. Ought he to tell the stranger about Art? He hesitated and already the youth was part way across the field, facing row to the right, away from the chestnut tree.

Jim strained his eyes for a glimpse of his friend. Something was moving in the woods. He fixed his gaze on that spot expecting to see his friend, when suddenly a large black form rushed out from the screen of golden trees. What was it? Jim stared. Then the truth dawned on him. It was the bull!

The animal stood stock-still while it rolled its glistening eyes. Then it seemed to stiffen. So did Jim; as there was no mistaking—the bull was looking at the strange boy. Jim saw the animal wheel and lower its head; then he gave a shout.

Both stranger and bull turned around. Jim began to wave and gesture to his new acquaintance, who seemed too astonished or scared to move.

One thought hammered through Jim's mind. "Art did this! This finishes our friendship. I won't put up with such a revengeful cuss."

He rolled under the barb-wire, forgetful of his own danger and anxious to save the other fellow. Going a few steps he began to prance and moo like a cow. This had the desired effect. The bull wheeled again and began a furious charge at his new enemy, while Jim backed to the fence, ready to slip on the other side as soon as safety demanded it.

The strange boy began running as fast as he could and would soon be safe. Jim rolled under the fence, dusted himself off and scrambled to the road. There he saw Art coming from the woods up the road a little way. Jim waited for him grimly.

"Well, Art," he said, as soon as his friend was in ear shot. "If anybody was to have told me you were such a mean cowardly yellow dog, I'd have punched his nose. But I don't want you to speak to me again."

"Aw, say!" cried Art, in surprise. "I'm awful sorry, but honestly what good could I have done by butting in? I'd only have lost my temper and made things worse than they were."

"I'm not talking about that," replied Jim. "I'm talking about the low-down way you sicked that black bull on the fellow."

"Did what?" exclaimed Art. "Why, I didn't!"

Jim could see that he spoke the truth, then he remembered that Art had noticed that the rope was weak. He was happy and held out his hand. "All right," he said. "I believe you, Shake."

They shook, and just then a shout brought their attention around to a figure running up the road towards them.

"It's the owner," said Jim, but he kept Art from talking to his heels. "He's a decent guy," he said.

Up came the stranger carrying Jim's sack.

"Say!" he panted as he drew near. "You certainly are a plucky kid, and I'd like to have your name and give you this sack of chestnuts."

"Jim Dale's my name," replied Jim. "But you keep the nuts and take the sack too." And he took Art's from his unwilling fingers.

The new friend made them all their pockets, then with good feelings all around they parted, promising to come and call the next Saturday afternoon.

"I don't understand all this pawing," remarked Art, as he and Jim made for the trolley station. "You and him seem to be pals and just as loving as can be. What's the idea?"

Jim Saw The Animal Wheel And Lower Its Head

I'm not quite as cluffed as you and I know a saw when I smell one."

He followed the direction of the roar and smell, while Jim went on harvesting.

"I was pretty near right," Art said, when he came back a few moments later. "It wasn't a cow though. It's a bull. But it's tied."

"I don't like it here," Jim said. "Let's hustle up and get out." "The rope didn't look any too tough," Art replied. "I guess we'd

The Citizens Trust Company

OF GETTYSBURG

Safeguards Your Money Every Day in the Year

Trust Department Acts as Executor, Trustee, Guardian
Does a General Bonding Business
Will give advice on the drawing of wills

Let Us Help You Open a Bank Account

O. H. LESTZ

The Home of Good Clothes
Corner Square & Carlisle Street, Gettysburg

DECEMBER

O. H. LESTZ

The Home of Good Clothes
Corner Square & Carlisle Street, Gettysburg

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

Solt's Economy Store

The only exclusive ladies' store in Adams County.

10 Carlisle Street,
Gettysburg, Pa.

Elsie R. Appler

Carries a full line of Fall and Winter Hats.

"The Little White Shop"

HARRIS BROS.

Clothing and dry goods. Ladies and Gents furnishings. Shoes a specialty.

Gettysburg, Pa.
30 Baltimore St.

Lincoln Way Theatre

Tonight

Thomas Meighan
in "White and Unmarried"

1

FURNITURE

Substantial, serviceable and reasonably priced as well as the ARTISTIC DESIGNS.

H. B. BENDER
The Home Furnisher

2

ZANE GREY'S

"MYSTERIOUS RIDER"

On this day and the next

Photoplay Theater

3

C. E. PITZER

Sanitary Meat Market. Fresh and smoked meats. Highest cash prices paid for veal and pork.
25 Chambersburg St.

4

FULL

New line of candies.
A trial is all we ask.MITCHELL'S
29 Centre Square

5

Adams County Hardware Company

19-23 Baltimore Street

6

See about a
SINGER SEWING MACHINE
at
THOMAS BROTHERS

7

PENROSE MYERS

Watchmaker and Jeweler

12 Baltimore Street

8

George C. Fissel

Insurance

Real Estate

Masonic Building

9

Work Harder And Save More

A dollar of your money and a minute of your time.
That is all it takes to start an account in our Savings Department.

Lincoln Trust Company

10

Dougherty & Hartley

New low prices on cotton blankets and comforts.

11

Bank

Our Strength.

12

With Us

Your Safety.

13

VEINER'S Leader Stores

Gettysburg, Hanover and Carlisle. Always carry a complete line of dry goods and men and women's wear.
Baltimore Street

14

Sanitary Barber Shop

Pipes—Cigars—Tobacco
Sefton, Miller & Eckert, Props.
35 Baltimore Street

15

Hides and Junk

HARRY VEINER

217 North Stratton Street

16

The Quality Shop

Ivan G. Naugle, Prop.
Men's furnishings and haberdashery
7 Baltimore Street

17

Sodas and Sundaes
Try our fountain this summer. Twenty degrees cooler than the street.A dandy place to eat.
The Gettysburg Candy Kitchen

18

The Gettysburg

Capital $145,150

19

National Bank

Surplus $170,000

20

Vulcanizing Retreading

Old Tires Made Young

Orner's Tire Service Station.

21

LUMBER— COAL— MILLWORK—

E. F. Strasbaugh,
Carlisle Street

22

SERVICE— QUALITY— STOCK—

People's Drug Store,
The Rexall-Kodak-Victrola Store

23

Gettysburg Ice & Storage Company

Ice—Ice Cream—and Pasteurized Milk
Both 'phones

24

BLOCHER'S

offer you a reliable, well kept stock of

JEWELRY

Dependable watch repairing

25

A. B. PLANK

Heating and Plumbing contracting.

Baltimore Street

26

This Week

Anniversary Week

Watch for special attraction

Photoplay Theater

27

REO SPEED WAGON

The lowest priced 1 1/4 ton truck on the market. Adapted to any kind of hauling, interchangeable bodies, electric starter and lights. Fast, economical, dependable. We guarantee parts replacement in 24 hours.

Forney's National Garage

28

Fred S. Faber

Cigar Manufacturer

Center Square, Gettysburg, Pa.

Wholesale Retail

29

Announcement

Come and try our oyster service. Stews 20c, Frys 25c. Large 45c.

Freman's Restaurant
Opposite Court House

30

MARY RAMER

Insurance and Real Estate

17 Chambersburg Street

31

Willard Storage Battery Service Station

H. & T. ELECTRIC COMPANY

Everything Electrical
Automotive Repairs
30 York Street

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: very desirable 160-acre stock farm on the Mummasburg Pike in Franklin township, four miles from Gettysburg. Stone house, frame bank barn, silo, all necessary out buildings, young orchard. For price and terms inquire Geo. W. Jacobs, 608 Kunkel Building, Harrisburg, Pa.—advertisement

FOR SALE: $750.00 Stieff Guaranteed piano for $400.00. $475 Upright for $315. $600 Estey for $100. Local Chas. M. Stieff, Inc., Representative. G. E. Spangler, 35 Hanover street, Gettysburg.—advertisement

FOR SALE: slightly used $600.00 Norris & Hyde Player piano for $385.00 including twenty five new rolls, bench and scarf. Nace's Music Store.—advertisement

FOR SALE: Ford touring car, good tires, good upholstery, in excellent mechanical condition, $195. Can be seen at Peckman & Ott's Garage.—advertisement

FOR SALE: talking machine, large cabinet size, mahogany finish, very reasonable. Apply 142 East Water street.—advertisement

FOR SALE: large double heater stove. Good as new. John Funt, Biglerville. United phone 53-21.—advertisement

FOR SALE: town property. Apply Lawrence Kump, Biglerville.—advertisement

FOR SALE: Victrola and seventy four records. Daniel J. March, Gettysburg R. 5.—advertisement

FOR SALE: benzoated sweet cider. C. H. Musselman Company.—advertisement

FOR RENT

FOR RENT: two hundred acre farm on shares, three-fourth mile from Gettysburg. Apply Times office.—advertisement

FOR RENT: furnished room. Inquire Times Office.—advertisement

WANTED

WANTED: counter, ten feet long, closed front, in good condition. Price must be reasonable. Apply C. H. Allen, York street.—advertisement

WANTED: good set of second-hand buggy harness. Inquire Times office.—advertisement

WANTED: to rent a stocked farm. Apply Times office.—advertisement

WANTED: boarders. Inquire Times office.—advertisement

LOST

LOST: pearl necklace on Chambersburg, York, Carlisle streets or in St. James church. Reward if returned to Thompson's Restaurant.—advertisement

LOST: fox hound. Black and white with tan spot above eyes and tan on lower jaw. Reward if returned to 134 West street.—advertisement

MISCELLANEOUS

CHILDREN'S hospital, Washington, D. C., School of Nursing. 100 beds. Accredited school. Training in three hospitals. Class entering February 1st. Address Superintendent of Nurses.—advertisement

HOLIDAY suggestions: Sale of fancy work; hand-made aprons and children's dresses, November 23d to Dec. 25th, afternoons and evenings. Laura Lady, 21 Steinwehr avenue.—advertisement

FREE offer: will give specially made brassiere with every corset sold until Christmas. Grace S. Codori, 303 N. Stratton street, C. V. phone 45Y.—advertisement

AUTOMOBILE repair work of all kinds. Automotive Electric and Repair Shop, E. W. Eiker, Prop., 142 Carlisle street.—advertisement

VANDYKES meat wagon will be on the square each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday during the winter.—advertisement

EMORY Pitzer will be on the square with fresh pork and lard, Saturday morning.—advertisement

SHOOTING match at Bendersville, Monday, December 26th; ducks, geese and clay birds.—advertisement

IT'S good insurance if it's signed by Geo. C. Fissel, Masonic Bldg., Gettysburg, Pa.—advertisement

BOARDING $7.00 per week. Thompson's Restaurant.—advertisement

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
4% on Savings of Gettysburg, Penna.

MOTHER FIGHTS IN COURT FOR BABY

Woman Wins First Legal Tangle. Was Charged With Kidnapping.

Huntingdon, Pa., Nov. 30.—Mother love—the overwhelming heart-hunger of a woman for her curly-haired baby—brought Mrs. Alfred Berger to Huntingdon from Worcester, Mass., and involved her in a legal tangle here, which will be finally straightened out at a habeas corpus hearing before President Judge Bailey this afternoon.

Confronted by two charges, one of attempt to kidnap, Mrs. Berger held to her intent to gain possession of her baby, Arline whom she has not seen in five months.

Thus far the mother has come through smiling and this afternoon the father, in accordance with a writ of habeas corpus, must produce the disputed baby in Common Pleas Court.

Faced Crowded Courtroom
After the charge of attempted kidnapping had been preferred, and Mrs. Berger, with two companions, John Brown and Raymond P. Coles—the latter her employer at Worcester—had been arrested, it was decided to drop this charge, and another charge was lodged against the woman.

She faced a crowded courtroom before Justice of the Peace James Kelly here last night, and despite the testimony of two hotel clerks, she was discharged.

After the hearing, Mrs. Berger told a correspondent that she felt confident of victory on Wednesday, when the question of the custody of her child will be considered.

"Do you think I would have come more than 500 miles through the rain to see my baby if I did not love and cherish her?" asked Mrs. Berger, tears welling in her tired eyes.

Pleads For Baby
"Arline is all I have in the world. Her father is trying to turn her against me. I am almost afraid to face her in court Wednesday, afraid that she may have believed the stories her father told her."

Mrs. Berger paused a moment. Then faith took the place of doubt in her eyes.

"No one can turn Arline from me. My baby will know that she has no other friend in the world like her own mother."

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College.

Insect Control—It is a good plan to clean up and burn all refuse in the garden and along fence rows before winter sets in. Many insect pests may be eliminated in this way.

Garden—Before real winter sets in have your vegetable ground in good shape for next spring. If any part needs drainage, now is the time to attend to it. If possible, turn over the garden this fall. You will be able to begin operations earlier in the spring.

Poultry—Just because the nights are getting a little frosty, do not be in a hurry to close those muslin curtains on the chicken coops. The prevention of draughts on the birds is of course essential, but remember that a cold, dry air is far more healthy than a warm, foul air.

Farm Chemistry—No progressive farmer can overlook an opportunity to go into the fundamentals of farm chemistry as it applies to his every day work. Winter evenings can be profitably spent by enrolling in this free ten lesson course offered by mail by the Pennsylvania State College agricultural school, State College, Pa.

CLASSIFIED

FOR SALE

FOR SALE: 38-55 Winchester Repeating rifle, take down model. Apply 237 Steinwehr avenue.—advertisement

WANTED

WANTED: to rent seven or eight room house with all conveniences. Inquire Walter Mehring, Gettysburg Route 4, C. V. phone 650-11.—advertisement

BONNEAUVILLE

Bonneauville—St. Joseph's Benevolent Society will hold their monthly meeting Saturday evening.

Mrs. Crist Gebhart who has been confined to the house for several weeks is able to be out again.

Mrs. Curtis Weaver, daughter, Florence, of York, spent some time as guests of the former's brother, Joseph McMaster.

Mrs. Horace Hetzel, of Fairfield, spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Charles Strasbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Painter, Mrs. Harry Weaver, were recent visitors in Hanover and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Clement Weaver.

Miss Anna Staub was a Hanover visitor, Friday.

Miss Anna and Theresa Golden were Gettysburg visitors, Saturday.

Gordan Kohler, of York, was a visitor in town, Monday.

Samuel Weikert, of Gettysburg, spent Monday here.

Misses Mary Emma Myers spent some time recently with relatives in McSherrystown.

Misses Agnes and Anna Gebhart, brother, Raymond, and Mary Graft spent the week-end in Mt. Rock as guests of the former's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Gebhart.

Leo Galden was a recent Hanover visitor.

CONFIRM SUICIDE

Hero Of Lost Battalion Left Message To Relatives.

New York, Nov. 30.—Confirmation of the report that Lieutenant Colonel

HUNTERS

George Yeatts, of Gardners, Pa., does mounting of all kinds. Deer heads a specialty. Price of mounting heads on plain shield $10.00. Any kind of shields at cost. References furnished.

GEO. R. YEATTS
Gardners, Pa.

(Medical Advertising) HOUSEWORK IS A BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache an odious distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Gettysburg women. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. Chas. Hunter, 127 W. High St., Gettysburg, says: "A number of years ago my kidneys were not in proper condition. Sharp pains darted through my back and this trouble made housework hard to take care of. My back ached most of the time but the pains were worse in the morning, directly after getting up. My sight was blurred by tiny spots and specks and I felt tired and was inclined to be nervous. As I had seen Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended, I purchased two boxes of them at the Peoples Drug Store. It took but two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills to drive all these signs of kidney complaint from me."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hunter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

(Medical Advertising) LIFE IS SWEET IN GOOD HEALTH

Weak Blood Causes Badling Feeling of Exhaustion

There is nothing so sensational as living in the glow of good health, and nothing so empty as existing in the bleakness of disordered health.

There is the direct testimony of medical and ordinary experience to prove that Gude's Pepto-Mangan restores poor blood to its natural healthy state. Physicians know its value and children rely upon it. Pepto-Mangan revives blood which has grown thin and weak and which has left its mark on the complexion and the disposition. Features hardened by sour feelings soften into a pleasant expression. The sensation of living—tasting, breathing, seeing the colors in sunshine, scenting the perfume of flowers, relaxing in the sweet refreshment of sound sleep—everything is enjoyed with intensity. It is red-blooded living. Gude's Pepto-Mangan has the name on the package and is sold by your druggist in liquid or tablet form.

Charles W. Whittlesey had committed suicide last Saturday night on his way to Havana was received yesterday by the Associated Press in a wireless message to Captain Grant of the steamship Toloa.

The steamship captain told the story of the Colonel's disappearance in these words:

"Colonel G. W. Whittlesey, a passenger from New York to Havana, disappeared from the ship during the night of Saturday, November 26.

"He left a letter addressed to me, giving me various instructions regarding the disposition of his baggage, and also requested me to send several wireless messages, which were quoted in his letter. He also left nine letters addressed to various relatives and friends, which I will send at Havana."

"He appeared normal and in good spirits when he left the smoking room about 11.15 Saturday night to retire."

(Medical Advertising)

For Raw Sore Throat

At the first sign of a raw, sore throat rub on a little Musterole with your fingers.

It goes right to the spot with a gentle tingle, loosens congestion, draws out soreness and pain.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard. It has all the strength of the old-fashioned mustard plaster without the blister.

Nothing like Musterole for croupy children. Keep it handy for instant use. 35 and 65 cents in jars and tubes; hospital size, $3.

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

HAS MENINGITIS

Slight hopes are entertained for the recovery of Lillian Straley, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Straley, of Littlestown, who is seriously ill from spinal meningitis. The girl has been ill since last Friday. She lost consciousness at that time and has since remained in that condition.

(Medical Advertising)

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY FOR THE RELIEF OF Coughs, Colds CROUP.
WHOOPIING COUGH, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS.
THIS REMEDY CONTAINS NO NARCOTIC
Manufactured by Chamberlain Medicine Co.
Manufacturing Pharmacists, Des Moines, Iowa, U. S. A.
PRICE, THIRTY-FIVE CENTS
(Copyrighted by Chamberlain & Co., 1921)

The Executive Committee of the Arendtsville Home and School Association announces a lecture course to be given in the new community auditorium at the Vocational school as follows: January 4, 1922, "The Qualen Concert Company"; January 14, Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans; February 11, Faculty Play-Home Talent; February 25, Resident James A. Burns; March 18, Home Talent Musicale. Talent for the three numbers will be furnished by the Coit-Nielson Lyceum Bureau, Pittsburgh, being the same Company that furnished the talent for the County Institute.

Profits to be given to the Auditorium Building Fund.

Tickets can be purchased from students of the Vocational school.

Season ticket with reserved seat $1.50 for the five numbers.

Motor Repair Work

Why not have your motor trouble cured by having your cylinders re-ground and fitted with new pistons and rings. You will have more power than when new.

Look the demonstration over at Plank's Garage and ask for more information.

Scored cylinders filled. Piston rings and pins on hand for all cars, trucks and tractors.

All kinds of machine repair work promptly done.

One trial will convince you.

Brennen Machine Grinding Company

C. V. Phone 71Z

Hanover, Penna.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

MRS. J. WILLIAM GARLACH

S. L. Allison, Embalmer and Director.

AUTO HEARSE SERVICE

Fairfield, Pa.

WINTER NEEDS SUPPLIED HERE

DEER HUNTERS

We are ready for you with Rifles, Cartridges, Hunting Coats and Hunting Knives.

Buy what you need here. Get started right.

WASHING MACHINES

Hand Power Washing Machines, easy to operate. Try the Wonder Washing Machines, good results in three minutes.

Other good machines we sell are the Quality and Dexter. Let us give you a demonstration.

ELECTRIC IRONS

We have several kinds of Electric Irons. An Electric iron soon saves its cost in time and money. Buy one now and begin to save.

COAL BUCKETS

Coal Buckets, Coal Shovels, Ash Cans, Ash Sifters and all the other things you need to keep your fires going properly. Prices right on all stove and furnace supplies.

GLOVES FOR THE WINTER

We have just received our winter supply of leather and canvas gloves. Prices on both kinds much lower than last year. Come in and get fixed up on gloves.

Gettysburg Department Store

Only The NEW EDISON brings you

1. Music exactly as the living artist produces it, because only the New Edison sustains the test of direct comparison.
2. Mood Music, which is the music that cheers you when depressed, soothes you when nervous, refreshes you when tired.
3. Muzio, Case, Hempel, Chalmers, Spalding, and other outstanding stars of opera and concert.
4. Broadway hits first.

$ puts a New Edison
(Fill in your own first payment)

beside your Christmas tree. That is, we will accept as Christmas deposit, any amount you name, provided it is enough to indicate good faith. Find out about this plan which enables you to give your family the marvelous New Edison. Mail the Coupon Today

Nace's Music Stores, Inc.,
Gettysburg, Pa.
Hanover, Pa.
Westminster, Md.
Manchester, Md.

NAME _____ ADDRESS _____
Dear Sir: Please send me _____
I will pay for this in _____ installments of $_____

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

Olivia Takes Danny to the Matinee

BY ALLMAN

A CHRISTMAS SUGGESTION THAT WILL APPEAL TO YOU

Our Household Furnishing department holds many opportunities for the husband and wife that are going to put their Christmas money together and get something for the home that will be a lasting mutual benefit.

Why give each other gifts that, while holding a certain amount of sentiment, will not be of great value on account of the use to which it will be put? Why not "chip to gether" and get that new rug for the living room or new linoleum for the kitchen.

RUGS

Rugs in all sizes and kinds that will appeal on first glance and grow more to your liking on your every glance. Their soft warm textures give them a Christmas air of comfort and homelikeness.

LINOLEUMS

Linoleums of all grades in patterns for every room in the house. We have it by the yard or in attractive rug patterns.

Draperies and Curtains

At a surprisingly low figure you can brighten all or some of the rooms in the house by our draperies and curtains. We have them ready to hang or by the yard. Cheer up that dark corner and make it look like home.

A HOOVER

Thousands of these will be given this year all over the United States as Christmas gifts. They lighten and make more thorough the job of keeping the house clean. The Hoover is the only cleaner that

BEATS as it SWEEPS as it CLEANS
21 more shopping days until Christmas.

G. W. Weaver & Son
Dry Goods Department Store

FEDERAL AGENTS BOUGHT LIQUOR

York Hotel Proprietor Will Answer to Charge in Court.

John Wise, proprietor of the Marshall House, York, was held for the action of the grand jury of the United States district court at a hearing Tuesday afternoon before United States Commissioner Samuel K. McCall, in York. He is charged upon the oath of Fred W. Kottcamp with illegally possessing and selling intoxicants. A. E. Rudisill, group head in charge of prohibition agents of this district, conducted the hearing on the part of the United States. Attorney George Love represented the defendant. Frank Lord, general agent of Washington, D. C., testified that he, with Agent McCabe, was sent to York last September, and with Herb B. Kain conducted an investigation of all the hotels in York city and that they purchased from Wise a half pint of whiskey, paying him three dollars for same. Mr. Rudisill stated that they had other witnesses who purchased whiskey from Wise as late as November 5 last, but they were not called.

Fred Kottcamp and Herb B. Kain were called and testified as to the liquor seized on the night of the raid made by these two officers and a detail of state police, when they found a quantity of wine and whiskey. Wise testified in his own behalf that the whiskey found was some he had on hand for three years for his private use in case of sickness and that some of the whiskey was taken from drunks who frequented his hotel. He also stated that he had brought the wine with him when he took charge of the Marshall House some years ago and had forgotten he had same. He entered bail for his appearance.

CHILD-SLAYER ON TRIAL

Mt. Holly, N. J., Nov. 30—With a grin playing about his ugly face, Louis Lively, confessed slayer of little Matilda Russo, was taken into Court for his trial yesterday morning with heavy manacles on his wrists and armed officers on either side of him. As he passed up the aisle of the Courtroom, Mrs. Russo, mother of the brutally slain child, started from her seat and with a cry of "Wild beast," endeavored to reach the negro. She was restrained with difficulty. Her husband, the Moorestown tailor, whose anger had been raised against the man when search was being made for him, threatening to shoot him on sight, looked upon the prisoner long and earnestly, but made no move. The Court officers finally changed the seats of the Russos to remove them from proximity to the prisoner in the dock as the trial proceeded.

SLACKER WANTS PROPERTY

Washington, Nov. 30—Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, convicted draft evader, through his mother, Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, of Philadelphia, yesterday filed suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for return of property valued at $750,000, seized by the Government. Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian, and Frank White, treasurer of the United States, were named as defendants. The petition set forth that Bergdoll is a citizen of the United States, regards his stay in Germany as "temporary" and expects to return to this country. The suit was brought under a section of the "trading with the enemy act," which authorizes such actions at law.

UPPER HUNTINGTON

Upper Huntington—Mr. and Mrs. Orpheus Golden and two children, Ralph and Vesta, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Fohl, of Arendtsville.

Wilson Hummelbaugh was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Groups, of Uriah, on Sunday.

Curtis Golden killed a porker last week that tipped the scales at 535 lbs. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Beitman, daughter, Esther, and son, Bruce, spent Thanksgiving with Charles Gardner and family, of Uriah.

William Glass has improved his property by building a chicken house and automobile shed.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Slaybaugh and grandson, Maurice Griest, were recent visitors of Harry Griest and family, of Aspers.

IRON SPRINGS

Iron Springs—Those who visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sanders were: Mrs. Charles McIntire, of Fountain Dale; Helen McClellan and William Sanders, of Guldens.

Mr. and Mrs. James Musseman and son, Samuel, spent several days recently with friends at Shippensburg. Mr. and Mrs. A. Danner Buehler, of Gettysburg, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brenizer and family.

Mrs. Harry Sanders spent a day last week at the home of James McIntire, of Jack's Mountain.

PLAN TO PREVENT EXCHANGE FLURRY

Bankers May Send Advisor to Conference on German Indemnity.

Washington, Nov. 30—The Federal Reserve Board probably will designate an unofficial adviser to take part in a conference of Allied bankers on means of preventing exchange fluctuations upon the payment of German indemnity installments, high Treasury officials said yesterday. The conference is expected to be called in London or Paris shortly.

An invitation to participate in the conference was tendered this Government by the banks of issue of England, France, Italy and other Allied countries. The United States probably would not be officially represented, but the presence of an adviser from the Reserve Board would permit the presentation of the American viewpoint.

Boyden May Be Named

Officials here indicated that it was more than probable that Roland T. Boyden, observer for this Government before the Reparations Commission, would be asked to serve as the unofficial representative of the Reserve Board at the exchange discussions while continuing in his present capacity.

Exchange discussion at the coming conference, officials declared would be confined to devising means of avoiding disturbance of exchange ratios by the payments on the German indemnity in January and later, and would not include any proposals for international exchange stabilization, settlement of the foreign debt questions or other world economic problems.

Previous Fluctuations Noted

Decision of the Reparations Commission to call the conference of bankers, officials explained, was reached because of the violent fluctuations which had resulted in the past after the transfer of gold from Germany to the Allies. The effect upon American exchange, it was said, had been carefully noted by the administration.

GETTYSBURG MARKETS

Market prices at the Gettysburg warehouses, corrected daily are as follows:

	Purchasing
Wheat	$1.05
Rye
Eggs	62
Butter	30a.35

Philadelphia Markets

Corn, No. 3, for export, .61a.62.
Butter: Western creamery, extra .46; nearby prints, fancy, .58a.60.
Eggs, higher. Nearby firsts, .69; Western extra firsts, .66; selected packed, .80a.81.

Baltimore Markets

Stock on the wharves:—
Veal, choice, per pound, .11; do fair to good, per lb., .09a.10.
Sheep, No. 1 per lb., .03a.03½; fair to good, .02½a.03; common, .01½a.02; old bucks, .02½a.03; spring lambs, choice per lb., .09a.10; do fair to good, per lb., .08a.09.

Hogs: straight per lb., .08; sows as to quality, .06a.07; live pigs, as to size and quality, .10a.11.

Beef cattle: first quality, per pound, .07a.08; medium, .05a.06; bulls, as to quality, .03a.05; cows, choice to fancy, per head, $50; and $75; common to fair, $30 and $40.

Chickens: old hens 5 lbs. and over .24a.25; old roosters, .14a.15; white Leghorn hens, .22.

Claremont Market

Sheep and Lambs: Light supply; market higher. Sheep: $1.50a$1.50; lambs, $5.50a$11.25.
Hogs: light supply. Market higher, Lights, $8.60, medium, $8.50; pigs, $8.60; roughs, $5.25.

Steers, choice, $7.50a$8; good butcher, $6.00a$7.50; medium, $5.50a$6.25; common, $4.25a$5.25.

Chicago Live Stock

Cattle Receipts, 17,000 head; market very uneven; beef steers and she stock steady to 25c lower; top steers, $9.75; no choice yearlings here; bulk beef steers $6.25a$8.75; bulls strong; veal calves, stockers and feeders mostly steady; best vealers and feeders mostly steady; best vealers to packers $9a$9.25; to outsiders, $9.50; desirable heavy calves higher.

Hogs—Receipts, 56,000 head; market active; steady to 10c lower than yesterday's average, largely 5a10 lower; best grades, off most; shippers bought about 13,000 head; holdover liberal; top, $7.10 for 150 to 160-lb averages; practical top, $7.05; bulk, $6.80a$7; pigs, 10a15 lower; bulk desirable, $7a$7.10.

Sheep—Receipts, 14,000 head; market steady to 25c higher; top lambs, $10.25; bulk fat lambs, $9.50a$10.10; choice handy ewes, $5.15; bulk native ewes, $3.50a$4.25; good feeder lambs, $8.30a$8.50.

"Felice's awfully pretty, you know," said Edmarsh. "My dear boy, all girls are so pretty nowadays that really it doesn't count."—"The Light That Never Failed," by Arthur Stillwell.

Young Fellows Pick the Brown Ones

More style, more quality, more value. That seems to be the hat program this season. There's a roll to the brim of these new Fall styles you'll like. You have the choice of a number of shades. Young fellows are pushing the brown one.

O. H. LESTZ

The Home of Good Clothes
Cor. Sq. & Carlisle St., Gettysburg, Pa.

PHOTOPLAY THEATRE

DAILY 6:30 MATINEE SAT. 2:15 SATURDAY 6:00

TODAY—ONE DAY ONLY

Alice Joyce

"THE INNER CHAMBER"

A mammoth production produced on a large scale with many spectacular scenes, notable among which are the famous charity bazaar, the mammoth Greek restaurant and cabaret, the musicale and the storm scenes. The latter was filmed on the Jersey coast during one of the worst storms of the season.

Alice Joyce was never seen to better advantage. The role calls for all her latent energy and emotional skill. It presents her as both the society girl and the woman of poverty. The story has an unusual twist. It is different from the average motion picture and one that is sure to appeal.

In one scene thousands of dollars' worth of furnishings are smashed by an insane doctor. Surprise follows surprise during the action. Nothing happens just as it is expected, but when the story is carefully analyzed it will be seen that every event is the logical result of some previous situation.

ALSO

"CUSTARDS LAST STAND"

A two reel Century Comedy

Note the reduced prices today and tomorrow. Adults 20c Plus WarTax Children 10c

Tomorrow—Corinne Griffith in "MORAL FIBRE"

Lincoln Way

FIRST SHOW DAILY 6:30 P. M.

TONIGHT—ONE NIGHT ONLY

DON'T MISS IT

We know of no screen star who is more popular than Thomas Meighan, the athletic Paramount star who scored so heavily in "The Miracle Man," "The Easy Road" and "The City of Silent Men." When it is announced that Mr. Meighan will be seen in another crook role, the public response is generous. We are therefore glad to inform you that Mr. Meighan will be seen at this theatre next Wednesday in his latest photoplay, "White and Unmarried," the scenes of which are laid in this country and in Paris. It is a thrilling picture and was directed with splendid success by Tom Forman. Jacqueline Logan, Grace Darmond, Walter Long and Lloyd Whitlock head an unusually clever supporting cast. You cannot afford to miss this excellent photoplay.

ALSO

MONTE BANKS IN "PEACEFUL ALLEY"

A real two reel comedy

Thursday—One night only—"The Northern Trail"—by James Oliver Curwood.

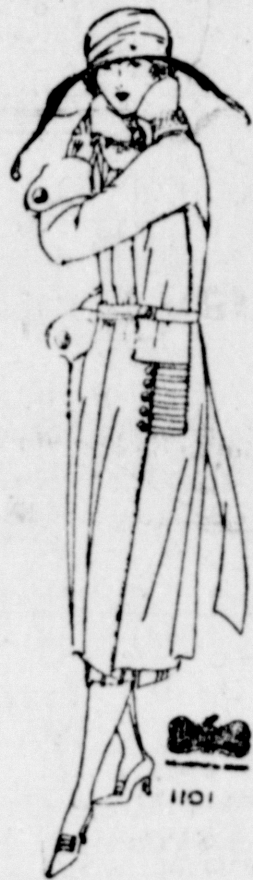

'Just As You Like Them'

Christmas shopping never was so interesting, especially when one comes upon such Printzess coats as these.

Tailored from the finest of materials, designed by creative designers for particular types, surely to see such coats would give you thrill after thrill.

And the most thrilling part of it all is their moderate price.

It would be interesting indeed to shop in our coat department if you are interested in a coat for the winter.

FUNKHOUSER'S

"The Home of Fine Clothes"
Center Square Gettysburg, Pa.

Gettysburg's Best Store

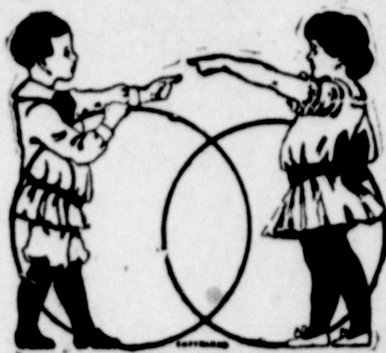

(Medical Advertising)

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE TO ASSIST NATURE

To Resist Miseries Brought On By a Disordered Stomach, Says the Tonal Chemist.

Nothing but take medicines which contain alcohol which stimulated you for the time being, and left your system in worse condition than before taking, and a continued use of laxatives to weaken your whole digestive system, and to set up an inflammation in the Colon. Why you persist in taking medicines which you know nothing pertaining to their curative elements is a mystery, when you can obtain Tonal, the Universal Tonic and System Builder which is made from Herbs, Roots and Barks—each herb, root, and bark known for its wonderful medicinal powers and used and recommended by your parents long before acids, chemicals and excessive amount of alcohol was thought of as a medicine.

Many a happy family has been broken up, due to some one or other of the family becoming addicted to habit-forming drugs which they knew nothing of; only to find themselves in the end a miserable moral and physical wreck. When you take Tonal you know just what you are taking. Read the formula on the bottle. Tonal is sold at Peoples Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

YOUR CHILD'S SIGHT

Should be looked after when young. Glasses worn in early youth may save them from wearing them in later life. At first symptoms of eye-strain bring your child to us. We specialize in examining children's eyes.

MARTIN OASTER

Kadel Bldg., Gettysburg, Pa.
Office hours: 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.
Saturday till 5 p. m.

NOTICE

I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife. All persons will please accept this as notice. No one is to harbor her.

RUSSELL MATTHEWS

Route 9 Gettysburg, Pa.

(Medical Advertising)

VITAMINES PROMOTE HEALTH

If you are weak, run-down, pale, sickly and nervous, or exhibit anemia or malnutrition, you may be benefited by Booth's Vitayeast Tablets. They aid digestion and promote health. Satisfaction guaranteed, or money back by Peoples Drug Store.

And Now Ray Guarantees Jars and Boxes

The Ray Battery Company has a nation-wide reputation for startling announcements. Here is the latest and greatest: Every RAY BATTERY shipped is guaranteed COMPLETE and unconditionally for two years. We have always been the only people to guarantee a battery unconditionally for two years. Now we break another precedent by being the only maker to guarantee jars, covers, boxes, handles, in fact every accessory which goes on to the battery.

Here is how our remarkable new guarantee reads: This is to certify that Mr. [Name] has purchased a RAY BATTERY covered by the number which appears on the face of this certificate. This battery has passed our inspection and is guaranteed unconditionally except from wreckage for a period of two years from date of sale. If it fails to take the normal rate of charge and give the maximum discharge a new battery will be given the holder of the guarantee. This guarantee is effective only if battery is returned to factory unopened and transportation charges prepaid.

Batteries Recharged and Rebuilt

Automotive Electric and Repair Shop

E. W. EIKER, Prop.

142 Carlisle Street

Gettysburg, Penna.

"When a man comes to the conclusion that he is too old to learn anything he is perfectly right about it—he is" says the Old Philosopher.

A visit to this store is sure to teach you one thing and that is that we sell home utilities and home comforts at prices that will make you feel like purchasing. Bring your wife along—it will be a pleasant trip for her.

CHESTER A. LEAS

257 Balto. St. Gettysburg